BY MR. PURPURA:

Q. Special Agent Jensen, just quickly, going back on the Home Depot and the Lowe's receipts, remember discussing those? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you actually had all the receipts from Home Depot and Lowe's; correct?
A. We had several receipts; right.
Q. Fair enough.
A. Yeah.
Q. And those receipts indicated they were credit card purchases; is that correct?
A. They were.
Q. Okay. They're not cash purchases. They were credit card purchases?
A. I don't think any of them are cash. I think they were all debit or credit.
Q. Thank you.
A. Yes.
Q. And using Government Exhibit PP-1A, you recognize this as the overtime slip June 24th, 2015, for Daniel Hersl; is that correct?
A. It's dated both 2015 and 2016.
Q. Right. And the correct date should be the 24 th, 2016; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Can you see right by the signature line right here, do you recognize that signature?
A. I don't know that signature.
Q. Okay. And just above it, it says the signature authorizing or the supervisor (indicating); correct?
A. Yes.
Q. All right. And you don't know who that is?
A. No. I didn't -- no, I don't know the signatures.
Q. Did you ever attempt to find out who authorized this overtime slip?
A. There was a point in time when we tried to identify some of the signatures. And in a couple cases we were able to if they put their sequence number, their police number. A lot of times we weren't able to.
Q. Okay. And the same question on the July 14 th overtime slip; apparently it's authorized again by someone. Do you recognize that signature?
A. I don't recognize the signature.
Q. Did you find out who signed that and authorized the July 14th, 2016 overtime slip?
A. The sequence number is that -- is -- I do know that sequence number, F934.
Q. Okay. Authorized by whom?
A. That's -- I don't know the signature, but $I$ know that number to be associated with Sergeant Thomas Allers.
Q. Okay. And, again, another signature on July 23rd, 2016, Government Exhibit PP-4A, which was, again, used by Mr. Wise yesterday. Do you recognize that signature who authorized the overtime?
A. I don't.
Q. And finally, on the last Government exhibit, August 8th, 2016, there's a signature again authorizing the overtime for Daniel Hersl on August 8th, 2016.

Do you recognize that signature?
A. I don't.
Q. Were you able to obtain any information as to who authorized the overtime on this particular date?
A. Not based on that signature, no.
Q. Now, yesterday when you testified about the month sometime in September through October of 2016, you testified about cell tower location monitoring; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And I don't think we really explained to the jury, what were you able to do? What did you do to obtain that information?
A. How did we obtain it?
Q. Yeah.
A. Cell site information is provided by a phone company based on a court order or sometimes a tracking warrant. Depends on the phone company, the way they collect their data.

So in this case, I think for Mr. Hersl for that time period, it was a court order.
Q. Okay. So you had cell site information which would be indicative that Mr. Hersl's cell, when it's being used, is bouncing off a particular cell tower; correct?
A. Yeah. So I would use the word "registered." So for certain telephone calls, your cell phone will be registered at a tower where the signal's transmitted.
Q. All right. And that gives you an approximate location as to where the phone may or may not be; is that correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And you had this -- the investigation started back in 2015; correct?
A. Late 2015, very -- the very end of 2015, yes.
Q. And when you requested the cell data information from Mr. Hersl's cell phone, did you also request it for the time period from June of 2016 through August 8th of 2016 ?
A. We did several court orders for all of their phones, so I'm not sure if I'll be able to recall for you the exact dates and how many we did.

We do have cell phone -- or cell site data for the phone used by Mr. Hersl for the summer of 2016. I don't know if I could tell you the exact dates. I think ending sometime in August.

And then I think we pulled it again in February maybe of 2017 and we pulled it for a longer period of time to try to basically fill gaps.
Q. Do you remember yesterday, I believe Mr. Wise started by putting on a demonstrative on the screen which was the racketeering acts involving both Hersl and Taylor.
Do you remember that?
A. Yes.
Q. Now, did you obtain the cell site data information for those particular racketeering acts where Mr. Hersl's charged with overtime fraud?
A. So we have cell site data for that period.
Q. All right.
A. But, yes, that includes all of those acts, yes.
Q. And yesterday -- and correct me if I'm wrong -- I don't believe you testified as to any one of those particular acts as to the cell phone location of Mr . Hersl on those particular racketeering acts, did you?
A. I didn't for the 14th. I don't think I did for the $29 t h$. I don't think I did for July or August. That's right.
Q. Thank you.

And in addition, you also were able to -- other than looking at cell records, another way to verify whether a person is working or not working or in Baltimore City or not in Baltimore City is via surveillance; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. All right. And on any of the particular dates involved in the overt -- strike that. The racketeering acts involving Mr. Hersl, did you attempt to do any surveillance on those particular dates to determine whether Mr. Hersl was or was not in Baltimore City when he said he was?
A. We did not do much surveillance at all because of the risk of being detected by the officers. We were very careful, so we did not.
Q. You did some surveillance, though; correct?
A. Some surveillance.
Q. You did some surveillance on Mr. Gondo; correct?
A. Very limited. We did primarily residential style surveillance.
Q. All right. But the bottom line is, although surveillance is a tool, you chose not to use that tool in this particular case for your law enforcement reasons; correct?
A. Right. We did not do much surveillance.
Q. Thank you.

Now, in addition to what you testified to, there was a Title III in this particular case; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And tell the jury just briefly what a Title III is.
A. A Title III is a court order authorizing us to intercept someone's telephone. Sometimes it's calls. It can be text messages. It could also be data, depending on the type of wiretap authorization we had.
Q. And you had an intercept on the line (443) 513-1994; is that correct?
A. Yes, that's correct.
Q. And also for (443) 513-1993; is that correct?
A. That's correct.
Q. And who are those phones associated with?
A. Both of those phones were associated with Former Detective Gondo.

Q. And can you please tell us when, approximately, you were able to intercept the calls on those phones. When did it start?
A. I think our initial wiretap was authorized on April 28th.
Q. Of what year?
A. 2016 .
Q. Okay.
A. And I think we ran through -- we had a couple of renewals. We went from 19 -- phone number ending in '1994 to '1993, I think. We transitioned. And our last authorization was sometime in the -- toward the third -- the middle of the second half of August, maybe the 19th of August.
Q. Okay. So sometime from April 20th, 2016, through August 19th, roughly, of 2016, you, as a Special Agent, and your team were able to monitor the phone calls, incoming and outcoming [sic] calls, to those particular Gondo phones; is that correct?

A. That's correct.
Q. And what you do when you do that is you attempt to find certain pertinent calls; correct?
A. We evaluate the calls that come in as -- we make an initial evaluation as to whether we find them pertinent or nonpertinent.
Q. And are these calls listened to $24 / 7$ ? Is someone monitoring the wire the entire time?
A. These wires were monitored, I think, all of them 24 by 7.
Q. All right. And with that information, what you determined, law enforcement determines what you believe are pertinent calls which may or may not help the case. And that's shared, of course, with the Assistant United States Attorneys; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And if you had pertinent calls or calls, let's say, between Hersl and Gondo that were helpful, you would have pointed -- helpful for your case, you would have pointed those out to Mr. Wise or Mr. Hines; correct?
A. I'm sure we would have shared information with them, of course.
Q. And all those calls, then, were available to Government counsel; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. In addition to having the Title III on Mr. Gondo's phone for those months, you also had a vehicle wire or a vehicle intercept; is that correct?
A. We had a microphone in Detective Gondo's BPD rental. It was a rental vehicle, but it was a BPD vehicle, yes.
Q. What kind of vehicle was that?
A. It was -- it was a gold Chevy, I think Impala, but it might have been a Malibu, yeah.
Q. Okay. And when can -- when was this microphone installed?
A. I think in the overnight hours of August 19th, so going into the early morning hours of August 20 th.
Q. So sometime in August 19th of 2016, basically when the wire goes down, the microphone goes up?
A. Yeah, and I actually think we probably had a few days of overlap, so the wire may have been a few days longer than that. But it was something like that.
Q. Fair enough. I'm not holding you to dates.

And how long was the microphone up in the car, the Gondo police car?
A. We ran the microphone through the day they were arrested, so March 1st, 2017.
Q. And, again, is that -- was that monitored like the Title III on a $24 / 7$ basis?
A. That was not monitored. We had some monitoring. We tried to monitor, but we weren't always there when it was running. Q. Okay. But you would or someone did review all the conversations obtained from August 19th, 2016, through March 1st of 2017 in Gondo's police vehicle; is that fair to say?
A. We would have reviewed most of it. I mean, there may have been some batches we didn't hear, but yes.
Q. And, again, the same process with the Title III. If you felt it was a call which aided law enforcement in this particular investigation, of course, that would have been shared with Government counsel; correct?
A. Yes. Sure.
Q. Now, on March 1st, 2017, that's kind of the takedown day; right?
A. Correct.
Q. And that's when all the police officers in this particular case were arrested; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. It's my understanding that Detective Hersl was told to report to IID; is that correct?
A. IAD, yes.
Q. IAD. Excuse me. I've been doing that the whole trial. IAD.

And what time was he supposed to report?
A. I think we said 9:00, I think, is what we -- I think it was 9 o'clock.
Q. Pretty close to 9 ' 'clock did he report?
A. Yes. I think everybody did sometime between -- before -just before 9:00 and maybe before 10:00, like 9:30, yeah.
Q. And I assume that Detective Hersl -- at that time

Detective Hersl -- was not told why he had to report; is that correct?
A. No, no. That was done for -- purely for safety reasons.
Q. Right. And you didn't want to forewarn anyone at that point either, did you?
A. "Anyone" meaning any of them?
Q. Any of the targets; correct.
A. No. Right. No.
Q. And then he was arrested at that time; is that correct?
A. That's correct.
Q. And there was also -- simultaneously, there were search warrants obtained or you had search warrants; correct?
A. We had obtained search warrants prior to the day of the arrest, yes.
Q. And these were search warrants signed by, I believe, a United States District Court Judge or a Magistrate Judge?
A. Magistrate Judge, I think.
Q. So these were lawful search warrants; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. All right. Good. And at that point one of the search warrants was to search the Harford County, Joppa residence of Mr . Hersl; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And also his vehicle; is that correct?
A. BPD vehicle. I do not think we did personal vehicles.
Q. And you did, in fact, search Mr. Hersl's home; is that correct?
A. A search was conducted, yes.
Q. And you didn't find any large stash of money, cash; correct?
A. I don't think any currency was recovered. If it was, it wasn't a large amount.
Q. All right. You didn't find any of the missing watches that were taken in some of these thefts, did you?
A. No. I don't think any jewelry was seized or located.
Q. And did you see what type of vehicle he had, his personal vehicle?
A. I didn't see it, but $I$ know what it is.
Q. What is it?
A. I think he had just bought a new Toyota 4Runner.
Q. And other than that, did he have any other vehicles?
A. He had had a Ford $F-150$, but $I$ don't know if he traded it in. I don't recall whether it was still there or not.
Q. Bottom line, in both his police vehicle -- was there any drugs found in his police vehicle?
A. (Pause.)
Q. I hope that's a "no"?
A. I think it's a "no."
Q. So search of his police vehicle, search of the house, there's no jewelry; there's no cash; there's no watches;

correct?

A. Correct.
Q. Did you also have the ability to subpoena his bank accounts?
A. Yes.
Q. And you did?
A. We did.
Q. You looked for large cash deposits or any cash deposits corresponding to any of these incidents; correct?
A. Yes, we looked for unusual bank activity.
Q. And you didn't find any, did you?
A. No. I -- no, nothing.
Q. Now, you also had the ability, and you did review some of the casinos. Maryland Live! and the Horseshoe, you had some of the videos; correct?
A. We did not get anything from Horseshoe because of the BPD presence there, actually. We did do one subpoena to Maryland Live! for the July 8th evening and got a little bit of footage for July 14th.
Q. Bottom line is that any of that footage did not have Dan Hersl at the casino; is that correct?
A. Right. The footage from the 8 th and the 14 th from Live! Did not.
Q. In addition, as we learned from Mr. Hamilton, you also had the ability to contact the casinos and see if they have a player card and to see if they're a player at the casinos; correct?

Case 1:17-cr-00106-CCB Dgenment 47EREjgd 08/17/18 Page 17 of 173
A. Yes.
Q. And did you find out if Mr. Hersl has a player card or is a player at any of the casinos?
A. We did not check. We did not check Horseshoe for the same reason that we needed BPD liaisons; and we were, frankly, afraid to give the officers' names to them. We did not check Live!, though.
Q. So the bottom line is you didn't check or you didn't do it; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Now -- just one second.
(Counsel conferred.)

BY MR. PURPURA:

Q. Now, there came a time when Mr. Hersl, he had -- strike that.

As part of the search and seizure, you seized two cell phones from Mr. Hersl, either at the arrest and/or his house; correct?
A. There were at least two phones seized. I don't know if there were more, but there were two. There was the one he had on him when he was arrested, and then there was one that had a broken screen that I think came from his house, yes.
Q. And obviously, sometimes cell phones can contain a treasure trove of information for law enforcement; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. It would have maybe contacts, who the person's contacting on a fairly constant basis; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Has photographs as we learned before; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Lots of information in these iPhones today; fair to say?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And Mr. Hersl gave you consent, written consent, to search not only the cell phone that he had on him when he was arrested, but also the cracked-screen cell phone at his residence; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Now, we heard about an incident involving the Belvedere Towers and Sergeant Jenkins and a bag of money which was seized plus marijuana or drugs.

Do you remember that incident?
A. Yes.
Q. And I believe -- I'm not sure. I'm getting them somewhat confused. But it might have been one of the detectives. Perhaps it was Ward -- it was Ward who said that he eventually threw that money out; correct?
A. I think, if I recall Mr. Ward's testimony, he -- if we're talking about the same incident, when they went to the strip club, he put the $$ 5,000$ in the bag with the marijuana. And then they went in; and when they came out, he never took it out.
Q. Well, that's one. I'm talking about the second one. Maybe -- I apologize. I don't want to confuse you.

There was an incident where he received -- oh, this is when he has the $$ 20,000$ and he ends up putting the money in a briefcase or a suitcase and throws it away.

Do you remember that incident?
A. I don't think it was a briefcase. I think he actually said he had it in a bag and he, like, tossed it into the wind in the field behind his house. That's what you're talking about, the 20,000 ?
Q. Right. I am. Yeah.
A. Yeah.
Q. Long way to get to the point, but you and TFO Sieracki actually went out to that field; correct?
A. We didn't.
Q. You didn't go out there?
A. We didn't.
Q. You didn't go back there and look for it?
A. We didn't. We did look for -- we have looked for things, but not for that.
Q. All right. Fair enough.

Did you ever go in the neighborhood and try to ask anyone if they recovered, you know, like 5 or 10 thousand or 15 or 20 thousand dollars in cash in the backyard?
A. No. But what I did do is I -- because, of course, the first time you hear it, anyone would think the same thing. It seemed unreasonable at the time.

So we did -- I looked at a map of the area. So I did verify that like there was a field behind his townhome complex, like an open area. And there was some houses. I could actually picture the map.

So what I did was I took the streets, so I thought, well, maybe -- like maybe like one citizen reported found money. So I took the -- just the four or five streets sort of around that area where that field was. And I did search for like -- it's in Baltimore County, so I had to search for, like, lost money. We didn't go door to door and ask people about it.
Q. But --
A. I guess we were being a little cynical.
Q. Good reason for that.
A. And I didn't find anything.
Q. The bottom line is that no good citizens of Baltimore County reported recovering 5, 10, 15, 20 thousand dollars in a field, did they?

A. I don't know that it happened, but I didn't find it. Yeah.
Q. Thank you.

And just a couple quick questions.
As far as -- did you attempt to determine whether Dan Hersl even has a passport?
A. I didn't do any records checks for that, and I don't recall whether one was recovered from his home. So I don't know.
Q. Okay. Do you know if he did any out-of-Maryland -- other than Delaware -- travel in the years of 2015 and 2016 based on this investigation?
A. I don't think in 2016. I have no information about that.

I don't know that I would know about 2015.
Q. And just finally, while he was still a detective, Detective Hersl did transfer out of the GTTF, is that correct, prior to his arrest?
A. Yes. He was transferred, I think, to Citywide Shootings, but maybe in January, although I'm not clear on the date. Sometime -- something like that.
Q. January of --
A. 2017 .
Q. January of 2017 sounds about the time that Daniel Hersl transferred to Citywide Shootings; is that correct?
A. I think so.
Q. Thank you.

MR. PURPURA: Thank you, Agent.
I have no further questions.

THE COURT: Thank you.
Ms. Wicks?
MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.
THE CLERK: Mr. Purpura, microphone. Microphone. MR. PURPURA: Oh. Sorry.
CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS. WICKS:
Q. Good morning, Agent.
A. Good morning.

MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. Yesterday when you started your testimony, you discussed a little bit about how you went about investigating this case; correct?
A. A little bit, yes.
Q. Okay. So you started by listening -- well, one thing you did was you listened to jail calls for people that had been arrested; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And you pulled the police reports pertaining to those arrests; correct?
A. Right. So we pulled -- I mean, we did that fairly early on where we pulled all of the police reports by officer, anything where they were like the author of the incident report.
Q. Okay. And you pulled the incident report for the search warrant at Shawn Whiting's house; correct?
A. We -- I don't recall if we pulled it or we were provided it; but, yeah, we obtained it at some point.
Q. Okay. In your investigation you obtained it; correct?
A. I don't know if we have the search warrant, but the incident report regarding the search, if that's what you mean.
Q. Can I approach showing you what's marked as 7 for ID at this point. (Handing.)

And these are official Baltimore Police Department reports of what occurred during an incident, and this one specifically is a search warrant executed at Shawn Whiting's house; correct?
A. I'm not sure. If I've looked at it, it was only once. But this is a Baltimore Police Department incident report of a search that occurred; right.

Yeah. This talks about them executing a search warrant.
Q. Okay. And this report reflects that Marcus Taylor --

MR. WISE: Your Honor, can we approach?
THE COURT: Sure.
(Bench conference on the record:
MS. WICKS: (Handing.)
MR. WISE: So the incident report is not evidence. It's hearsay written by someone other than Special Agent Jensen. If there's a question about what she knows, the question can be posed. If she says, I don't

Case 1:17-cr-00106-CCB Dgentsent 47ERסjgd 08/17/18 Page 24 of 173 remember something about what the investigation learned or didn't learn --

MS. WICKS: Sure. I can step back and ask.
MR. WISE: And then -- I just didn't want it read into the record as to what this report -- it's not admissible, reports to say -- we know that a lot of these reports were false, and so we've been very circumspect with them.

THE COURT: All right. Maybe just sort of generally --

MS. WICKS: I'll step back and ask my questions --
THE COURT: Without this?
MS. WICKS: -- about her investigation and -- yeah, that's fine.)
(Bench conference concluded.)
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. And, Agent Jensen, in gathering the reports related to people being stopped or people being arrested by the officers in this investigation, a lot of these reports were authored by the officers under investigation; correct?
A. Yes. I mean, sure, we pulled reports specifically regarding, you know, that the officers had authored.
Q. Okay. And you -- during -- throughout the investigation, you had concerns about the veracity of some of the information; correct?
A. Within the reports?
Q. Yes.
A. I think we evaluated the reports to see if we could -- if there were inconsistencies, and I think there were times when we felt there were inconsistencies in the reports. I'm talking generally, yes.
Q. And clearly there's been testimony about there was inconsistencies between the amount of money seized and the amount of money in the reports, for instance. There's a dispute about that oftentimes?
A. Right. I mean, what we knew -- what we knew was that there was an amount put in a report or -- and then we would check, for instance, the evidence that was submitted versus maybe what we heard on a jail call or what someone told us had happened.
Q. Okay.
A. There were discrepancies there.
Q. And so specifically the testimony at trial and through your investigation regarding the search warrant at Shawn Whiting's house, there was testimony that Marcus Taylor was one of the first officers searching the house; correct? A. I don't know if first is how $I$ remember. But I recall Former Detective Ward testifying that it was Detective Taylor that found the money in a box, I think, or a shoebox in a closet, if $I$ remember that incident right.
Q. Okay. And --
A. I don't know if he was the first one searching, but I think that he found it first, maybe.
Q. Okay. And the -- but the paperwork that you reviewed indicated that Detective Taylor was not actually listed as being part of the raid team; correct?
A. Oh, I didn't -- I'm sorry. I did not -- did not read that when you handed it to me. I can read it again, if you'd like.
Q. Sure.
A. And I -- yeah. I don't know.
Q. To refresh your recollection, I'm showing you 7 again, the middle of Page 3.
A. Do you mind if $I$ just read it real quick?
Q. Sure.
A. Thank you.
(Reviews exhibit.)
So like you said, he's not listed here, but if you go to the last page, it says [reading]: All property recovered -was recovered by Detectives Taylor and Detective Pinto.

And then the second-to-last paragraph says [reading]: After having -- pardon me. I don't have the right reading glasses on.
[Reading]: After having his Miranda rights given by -given, Mr. Shawn Whiting stated to Detective Taylor the reason he had handguns.

So he's referenced, although he's not listed on the page before.

Q. Sure. So my first question, which was, "Was he listed as part of the raid team?" he was not; correct?
A. He's not listed -- he's not listed on this page, right, with the other officers.
Q. And the raid team listing identifies officers that are going to be doing pertinent, serious parts of what the police team is doing in effectuating the search warrant; correct?
A. Well, this report is written after it happens, so I can't -- I didn't write the report, so I don't know a hundred percent.

But what I see here is it says "raid team." And then it lists affiant, supervisor, ram, bunker, cover, rear, hands, uniform.

Actually, I don't see anything listed for searchers, but yeah.
Q. Okay. So on the description of the people that take part in certain specific jobs, that would happen at the beginning of a search warrant execution to ensure officer safety and the safety of the people in the house, Detective Taylor is not listed there, although it does indicate, at least chronologically in the description, that he does take a part in recovering property or evidence.
A. Yeah. So it's -- the raid team, you know, those roles are all things that would sort of go through the door and secure the residence. I don't know why he's not listed. I don't -- I can't really speak to that.

And then he's just referenced later in the report as having had some interaction with Mr. Whiting and having recovered the property. Yeah.

I don't write these reports, so $I$ can't really speak to why they're written the way they're written. (Handing.)
Q. Now, you were asked yesterday by AUSA Wise about Wayne Jenkins; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And you indicated that he was not cooperating?
A. Yes.
Q. He has certainly tried; correct?
A. What do you mean by "tried"?
Q. Well, he proffered with the United States.

MR. WISE: May we approach, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Yes.

Case 1:17-cr-00106-CCB Document 471 Filed 08/17/18 Page 30 of 173

Douglas J. Zweizig, RDR, CRR - Federal Official Court Reporter
by the Government. And this is a photograph of Donald stepp's ankle, and the exhibit indicates August 9th of 2016?
A. Yes.
Q. And do you know where that date came from?
A. I didn't personally review these photos, and I didn't seize -- I didn't take them off the camera, I presume, or the phone they came from.
Q. Okay.
A. I can give you a general answer about dates on photos, but I can't speak specifically to that.

MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.

BY MS. WICKS:

Q. And if you looked at the -- this is 9 for identification. If you looked at the display of the photographs in Mr. Stepp's phone, it would show you the date and time that either a movie or a photograph was taken by him on his phone; correct?
A. And you said this did --
Q. This is one page of --
A. This came from his phone (indicating) ?
Q. Yes.

MR. WISE: Your Honor, I think the -- objection; foundation. I don't know that she's actually seen this.
THE COURT: I thought she said she had not.
MS. WICKS: Well, I'm asking her to generally -- can we approach?

THE COURT: Sure.
(Bench conference on the record:
MS. WICKS: Your Honor, then as the lead of this investigation, if she hasn't seen his phone, what was on it, whoever is the person that downloaded this and provided it to the defense, I'll need that agent for our case. Maybe the Government and I can reach a stipulation, but --

THE COURT: Yes, maybe --
MR. WISE: I don't know what it is.
THE COURT: Tell me more about this.
MS. WICKS: This is a printout of just a section of the images from his phone. And this is the specific exhibit that was -- it's a movie, actually, that $I$ guess a picture was printed from. And it's dated August 8th, 2016, at 10:29 p.m.

MR. WISE: Right. And so that's the date that he broke -- he testified he broke in -- that's the date we know he broke into the Armstrong storage locker and he took the picture of his busted ankle at 10:30.

MS. WICKS: Right. And the Government Exhibit says August 9th, 2016.

MR. WISE: Well, the phone says two thousand -- that's a number from the phone. That's what the testimony -- he testified about that at length.

MS. WICKS: Actually, on cross he didn't know -- this 8/9/2016 is not in the phone. 8/8/2016 is in the phone.

MR. WISE: I don't know -- I don't know who can -- we can't call the phone to testify. I don't know how she or any other agent can explain why -- I mean, he tried to, to say, "When I move things from one place to another, sometimes it redates it."

They asked Stepp about this at length. This has been covered.

I don't have an agent who can explain why -- I mean, he tried to -- why it may be listed as one time in a log but then have another number associated with it.

MS. WICKS: But this is the number that the Government puts up on it.

MR. WISE: No. We didn't put the number on. This is what came off the phone.

MS. WICKS: His iPhone prints that number.
MR. NIETO: On the bottom left.
MS. WICKS: On the bottom left.
MR. WISE: I think that's what he said. I think he said he's not sure.

MS. WICKS: No, that's not what he said.
MR. WISE: So I don't understand what the -- I don't know what the relevance of this is.

MS. WICKS: The relevance is it's the wrong date, and he's telling a story with his ankle as to a moment in time where he's been injured. And the date on there is incorrect.

Case 1:17-cr-00106-CCB Document 471 Filed 08/17/18 Page 34 of 173

And I don't want there to be a confusion that Wayne Jenkins is not -- is telling the truth when Wayne Jenkins claims Detective Taylor messed up that investigation. This is that whole date.

MR. WISE: What he testified to was he wasn't sure if he took the picture the night of or the next morning.

MS. WICKS: Well, this shows that he took it the night of, assuming he was there.

THE COURT: Can we agree to that?
MR. WISE: Sure.
MS. WICKS: I asked for a stipulation last night, and I hadn't gotten an answer back.

MR. WISE: Not on this.
MS. WICKS: Can I finish what I had to say?
MR. WISE: But don't say that we asked for stipulations --

THE COURT: Stop.
MS. WICKS: I asked for a stipulation on another matter last night, and I didn't receive a response back. So if there are stipulations, we can --

THE COURT: Why don't we do this. I don't think this witness is the right person because she did not download it. She said she hasn't looked at these.

I would hope that you all could work out a stipulation at the break that there are records that show that the picture was taken -- internal phone records suggest it may have been taken August 8th at 10:36 p.m.

MR. NIETO: Your Honor, just in an abundance of caution, if, God forbid, we are unable to reach a stipulation, I just want to make sure the Court's aware that it's our position that that particular date on the exhibit was not from the photo. That was put there by the Government in their presentation, so the question, then, is if we cannot reach a stipulation, who put that date there? Because that date, based on the other discovery, is false. And that's what we're looking for.

MR. WISE: I'll stipulate to it right now so we don't have the "God forbid." I mean, we know this is when the robbery happened. He testified he hurt his ankle and then took a picture of it. I don't -- there's no dispute about this.

THE COURT: Okay. So we'll be able to work out a stipulation that the internal records of Mr. Stepp's phone show that this picture, DA-9, was taken at whatever it is --

MS. WICKS: 10:29 p.m. on August 8th of 2016.
THE COURT: Okay. All right.)
(Bench conference concluded.)
THE COURT: All right. Thank you. We'll work that out later.

MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.
THE COURT: You can probably take the picture off of there.
MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. Agent, I'm showing you FBI-15B that was entered into evidence by the Government. And this is a Badge No. 244 that was located in a wallet that Mr. Taylor was carrying when he was arrested; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And this wallet --

MS. WICKS: If I could have Defense 12.
I'm providing the Government with a copy, albeit poorly printed. This will be Taylor 12.
(Pause.)
THE COURT: Do we have a paper copy of whatever this is?

MS. WICKS: I can show the paper copy.
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. This is the wallet that Mr. Taylor had when he was arrested that has that badge.
A. Okay.
Q. Correct?
A. Yeah. I think you can make out the 244 on the bottom.
Q. Okay. And the ID in that wallet is Badge No. 224. And if --

MS. WICKS: Your Honor, can I walk up to the witness

with my computer?
THE COURT: Sure.

MS. WICKS: Actually, I guess I can put my computer screen on ELMO.

BY MS. WICKS :
Q. The ID in the wallet with the replica badge is Badge No. 224; correct?
A. Yes. It says 224.
Q. Okay. And that appears to be an identification card issued by the Baltimore Police Department; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And have you yourself examined the badge that was in the wallet?
A. I have looked at both of those items; yes.
Q. Okay. And is that badge a replica type of badge that is screwed into the wallet?
A. That's getting -- that's not something I'm familiar with with the department badges. I didn't look at the back of it. I looked at it in the wallet.
Q. Okay.
A. So I know that there are different badges that they can get, but I don't know the specifics of how that works.
Q. Okay.
A. It definitely says 244 .
Q. The badge says 244 , but --
A. And the ID says --
Q. -- the ID says 224 ; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And I guess --

MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.
(Counsel conferred.)
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. Defense 11 is -- this is another kind of identification that officers wear commonly on a lanyard, a similar type of identification card from the Baltimore Police Department. And this was seized from Mr. Taylor when he was arrested; correct?
A. I don't actually specifically remember that. Very possible that this came off his person as well. But I -- I just don't recall.
Q. And this was provided in discovery with the Bates stamp there. You can see in the upper right corner (indicating)?
A. Okay.
Q. And do you know where this was seized from on his person when he was arrested at IAD from the -- his work car or from the house?
A. I'd be guessing. I just don't remember. If you wanted to show me a report, I could look at that. But --
Q. Okay. In addition, during -- earlier in the trial there was a badge showed that had Badge No. 926; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And that badge was recovered from Mr. Taylor's residence; correct?
A. Correct. I think it was in a closet. May have been affixed to some police clothing.
Q. Okay. And did you check with Baltimore Police Department records to determine that each of those badge numbers, 224, as indicated on the IDs, and 926 were both badge numbers issued to Detective Taylor as a detective with the Baltimore Police Department?
A. We did check records, and I'm sorry that I don't recall the specifics as to what all the numbers meant and whether -- I have some memory of something being either lost or expired, but that may not have been Detective Taylor's badge. It may have been Detective Hersl's, so I don't recall without looking at the reports.
Q. Okay. And then the tactical vest introduced as FBI --

MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.

BY MS. WICKS:

Q. -- as FBI-18 and then the photograph, I think, is 18B, this tactical vest that was identified as Detective Taylor's was located at the Baltimore Police Department offices of the Gun Trace Task Force; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And so when this vest was displayed with the badge on it, they were actually found at two different locations; correct?
A. No, we didn't display it with a badge. What was there was his -- there's like a little Velcro strip that said, I think, "M. Taylor."
Q. Okay.
A. I don't recall there being a badge on it.
Q. Okay.
A. I think --
Q. Do you recall the nametags were found at his residence with his uniform?
A. No. The little Velcro was with the vest when we found the vest.
Q. Okay. And so --
A. I actually -- I actually saw that, so . . .
Q. Okay. Although it's not evident from the photograph here; correct?
A. I think it's --

MS. WICKS: Do we have the badge here? I mean, I'm sorry. Not the badge -- do we have the vest here?

THE WITNESS: It's not the badge. It's just a little -- you know, it's just like a little -- it's just like a little nametag with a little Velcro strip that said "M. Taylor."

BY MS. WICKS:
Q. Okay. But that's different than the nametags that were for his uniform that were located at his residence; correct?
A. If we found nametags, if you mean like little pins, definitely not a pin. It's just a little piece of velcro strip that would affix to Velcro on his vest.
Q. Right. But there's nametags that affix to a uniform that are --
A. Right.
Q. -- metal; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And those were located at his residence; correct?
A. I think there was one associated -- yes, found with the clothing with the badge, yeah, 926.
Q. Thank you.

MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. And I'm showing you FBI-28 that you looked at yesterday. This exhibit -- I mean, this portion up here was added to the exhibit to indicate what the records pertain to; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And the ticket that Mr. Taylor took, the trip that

Mr. Taylor took to the Dominican Republic appears to have been booked in April of 2016; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And did you check whether he had turned in slips for time off to his sergeant? And his sergeant at that time would be Sergeant Jenkins; correct?
A. You're asking if I --
Q. I know that was compound.

Back in April of 2016, Sergeant Jenkins was the sergeant that Detective Taylor reported to; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And were you able to check if he or Maurice Ward or Hendrix had at any time turned in leave slips for that trip that they had been planning for several months?
A. As in vacation slips?
Q. Yes.
A. I think they're paper slips. We did not locate any. I don't know that there's an accounting in the way the system works in a way that $I$ could guarantee that they hadn't been submitted, but we didn't find any.
Q. Okay. So from the system as you are able to review the records from the Baltimore Police Department and ADP, you are unable to determine if those slips had been turned in to Sergeant Jenkins or turned in by Sergeant Jenkins to the system; correct?
A. Right. So what we had was we had the ADP, which is what the clerks enter all their time in. So I don't know exactly how vacation slips work, if they're similar to overtime slips. But the clerks would enter them into the eTIME ${ }^{\circledR}$ system. So what we didn't see were the vacation days claimed over that period.
Q. Okay.
A. I can speak to that.
Q. And someone working at the Baltimore Police Department and taking vacation, they would -- if they had vacation time, they would be essentially getting the hours that they would have been working if they had been there; correct?
A. I'm sorry. Can you ask that again.
Q. With your somewhat of a familiarity with how the system works in the Baltimore Police Department, someone that is on vacation, there should be a notation somewhere that they're on vacation. But in terms of the hours they're receiving as a salaried employee, they would be receiving the same hours if they were working or if they were on vacation, although they should be categorized differently.
A. I think if you're asking if they get different pay when they're on vacation, I think the answer would be no, like any of us that are on salary.
Q. That's exactly what I'm asking.
A. But I will say in ADP, it would be reflected as vacation. You know, you would see a vacation debit, eight hours or whatever it is. I have seen that other places, but not on those days.
Q. Okay. But in terms of the process between the Baltimore Police Department and ADP, you just have the records to look at; there weren't specific people that you could go back to determine how the information had been entered into the system that then $A D P$ received in order to spit out electronic paychecks; correct?
A. Right. We don't -- we did not find, I guess, if there were or were not slips. We just . . .

MS. WICKS: Okay. Court's indulgence.
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. And looking at --

MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. I'm going to show you FBI-9, Page 14, as I think you looked at yesterday.

And, again, these are transcripts that were created of actual recordings of the participants; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. From the microphone -- from the recording device that was in Detective Gondo's police car; correct?
A. It would depend on what you're going to show me.
Q. Sure.
A. I don't know the page number by hand -- that's actually a wiretap call.
Q. Okay. That's a wiretap. Sorry.
A. Yep. Yep.
Q. Okay. And yesterday you were asked about this line --

THE COURT: I'm sorry. Do we have like a date or exhibit number?

MS. WICKS: This is FBI-9, Page 14, and it's a wiretap conversation, Session 1745, on July 23rd at approximately 4:48 p.m.

THE COURT: Thank you.
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. And, again, this is a conversation between

Former Detectives Rayam and Gondo; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And we -- the transcript reflects that Rayam is indicating that Jenkins had said that it was just going to be y'all three; correct?

MR. WISE: Your Honor, may we approach?
(Bench conference on the record:
THE COURT: What page was it?
MS. WICKS: Page 14.
THE COURT: 14. Thank you.
Okay. Problem? What's the problem?
MR. WISE: So Gondo testified about the call. He said who the -- you know, it was supposed to be him and Rayam and Jenkins working that night, and then Rayam's wife was in Pennsylvania. So he didn't know when she was coming back, and so it turned out to be just the two of them. That was the testimony yesterday.

I think where this is going is to try to suggest that somehow Taylor was three.

MS. WICKS: I'm not. I'm just suggesting that -- I'm not going there.

MR. WISE: But she didn't -- she can't testify about what anyone meant on this call. Gondo would have been the one to do that.

THE COURT: Sure. I don't know whether the next question is going to be something like: And from your investigation, do you know? Or is it an interpretation of what somebody meant in the call, which is a different issue?

MS. WICKS: She's listened to these calls. There have been transcripts created. But, you know, y'all -- later on he talks about y'all two; he's talking about y'all three.

And that can all be subject to interpretation. I mean, it -- when it was presented with Gondo, it was as if it was consistently y'all two. We have a transcript that says "y'all three." And the jury has the recordings, but we keep using the transcripts. So --

MR. WISE: We played the recording.
MS. WICKS: Yes, and the recording says "y'all three," so I'm just --

MR. WISE: Because he goes on to explain his wife is coming back from Pennsylvania, so the plans changed. There's not an inconsistency.

THE COURT: I don't -- what is it that we're going to get from this witness?

MS. WICKS: I can play the call for her. I mean, it's just listening to the call, because at the end of -- after -last night after I'm looking at my notes at how Gondo testified, $I$ don't think it was clear. She's listened to all the calls. I would presume at least the ones that we're using in court -- I can't imagine she's listening to every single one, but certainly the one being used in court. And I was going to play the call. I can just do it in my closing but . . .

THE COURT: I mean, I don't see that it's a major issue. If you want to just use this witness to point out that at one point he says "y'all three" and another point it says "y'all two," I don't see how --

MS. WICKS: That's not -- right. "Y'all two" and "Y'all three" is -- neither one of those times is he taking himself out of the equation. I agree in the end, but when he's -- maybe I'm confused. But --

MR. WISE: All this would have been appropriate for Rayam to be cross-examined on. But to use her as a sort of prop to try to argue that that means somehow Rayam is inconsistent or you can't rely on what he's saying, she's not the competent witness for that. It would have been Rayam or Gondo, and they're not on the stand right now.

MS. WICKS: I'll withdraw it, and I can argue that in closing if $I$ need to.
Okay. Can I just show the color -- we have the color exhibits now instead of just my computer screen.

THE COURT: Sure.
MS. WICKS: Thank you.)
(Bench conference concluded.)
(Counsel conferred.)
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. Agent, I just want to show you -- here's a color -- this is Defense Exhibit 11, not on my computer, but what would be the exhibit.

And this is Defense 12.
A. Okay. Yes, ma'am.
Q. And I'm going to withdraw my previous question.

MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.
THE COURT: Sure.
MS. WICKS: Can I consult with co-counsel?
THE COURT: Of course. Would you like the -- the ones that you just put up on the screen, is that what you wanted admitted, the Defendants' 11 and --

MS. WICKS: Oh, yes, for identification at this point.
THE COURT: Just for identification. Okay. Thank you.

MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.
(Counsel conferred.)

MS. WICKS: May I just consult with Government counsel, please?

THE COURT: Certainly.
(Counsel conferred.)
MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.
THE COURT: Sure.
THE CLERK: Ms. Wicks, please remember to turn your microphone on.

MS. WICKS: Yes.
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. Detective, you did conduct some surveillance of -- well, the team conducted some surveillance of the officers' residences prior to the takedown?
A. Yes.
Q. And during that surveillance Mr. -- well, at least one night, Mr. Taylor had a female friend, and you could tell by the car that was in the driveway or located in the street near his house; correct?
A. You're referring to a surveillance report that I wrote?
Q. Well, you're aware that he had a female friend that lived in Middle River. And so when reviewing -- yesterday you were talking about his cell site. At certain times the cell phone for Detective Taylor was in Middle River, Maryland; correct?
A. I don't recall saying that about Detective Taylor's phone yesterday. But if you're asking if I -- there was -- there would be a car parked in his driveway sometimes registered to a woman --
Q. Yes. And she was a woman who owned a house in Middle River, Maryland.
A. So she was later identified as a -- we assume is a girlfriend, but we didn't know. And she -- her residence was in Middle River, yes.
Q. Okay. Well, not to really give anything away, but there were nights when her car was at his house, correct, in February of 2017?
A. Yeah. I would say more likely it would be early morning maybe that we were checking, but yeah.
Q. Okay. Early morning and people had -- there were two cars there. One was his car and one was this female person's car; correct?
A. So the residence had a garage, and we didn't know whether cars were parked in the garage. But there would be like one spot in the driveway, and sometimes that vehicle would be in the driveway.
Q. Okay.
A. And he had a personal car that would be parked usually in a spot really adjacent or very close to the residence.
Q. Okay. And there were times in reviewing the cell site of his phone that the cell phone would be in Middle River, Maryland, where you know that this woman has a residence; correct?
A. So I think if -- I don't think I testified to this. But if you're asking, when $I$ reviewed his cell sites during the summer, which was primarily when I did it, during the summer of 2016, come February of 2017, when we put together that, "Oh, this must be a girlfriend. Oh, she lives in Middle River. I have memories of his cell phone being in Middle River.
Q. Okay.
A. Like overnight. So, yeah, I mean, I put it together that maybe he was staying at her place sometimes.
Q. Okay. And you memorialized that in 302s; correct?
A. I don't --
Q. The times when the cell phone was in Middle River, Maryland, in the summer of 2016?
A. Probably, sure, probably.

MS. WICKS: Okay. Court's indulgence.
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. After you -- you indicated that you hadn't checked the casinos during the time that the investigation was ongoing and the officers had not been arrested; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And since then, have you conducted that further investigation of the area casinos?
A. We have not subpoenaed the casinos, no.

MS. WICKS: Okay. Thank you.

No further questions, Your Honor.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
Any redirect?
MR. WISE: Just briefly, Your Honor.
REDIRECT EXAMINATION
BY MR. WISE:
Q. Special Agent Jensen, just briefly, Mr. Purpura asked you a series of questions about the searches that were done on March the 1st of 2017.

Do you recall being asked that?
A. Yes.
Q. And whether -- what was recovered or not recovered at that time. Do you recall those questions?
A. Yes.
Q. Now, in the course of the investigation -- and the jury's heard testimony to this effect -- did you become aware that there were leaks about the existence of the investigation to the -- at that time the targets of the investigation, the men that became the defendants in this case?
A. Yes.
Q. And did those leaks occur before March the 1st of 2017 ?
A. Yes; much before.
Q. And, in fact, what did Sergeant Jenkins do in the fall and into the early part of the winter, so late 2016 into --

MS. WICKS: Objection. May we approach?

THE COURT:

(Bench conference concluded.)
BY MR. WISE:
Q. So, Special Agent Jensen, just to remind us where we were, I had asked you whether you and -- you became aware that there were multiple leaks about the existence of the investigation, the federal investigation to at the time the targets, including these defendants, before they were arrested on March the 1st, 2017.

Do you recall me asking you that?
A. Yes.
Q. And what was your answer?
A. There had been.
Q. And what did Sergeant Jenkins do in the fall of 2016 into the winter of 2017?
A. He abruptly took 90 days of leave.
Q. And you were asked questions by Mr . Purpura about both the wiretap and the microphone that were used in this case.

Do you recall those?
A. Yes.
Q. And the jury has heard multiple calls from the wiretap in the course of the trial; right?
A. Yes.
Q. And also microphone recordings; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And just by way of example, this is FBI-11. This has already been shown to the jury. This is Recording Session 79. It's Page 1 of $\operatorname{FBI}-11$. This is the recording from August the 31 st of 2016 of the car crash that Detective Rayam testified about; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Where --

MR. PURPURA: Objection, Judge.
THE COURT: Sustained.

MR. PURPURA: Thank you. It's not --
THE COURT: We've done it.
MR. PURPURA: It's like it's closing argument.
THE COURT: They've heard it.
BY MR. WISE:
Q. And that was, to Mr. Purpura's question, one of the microphone recordings that you brought to attention -- brought to the attention of Mr . Hines and myself; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And lastly, just on the questions from -- well, you also asked some questions about surveillance, and you said that you chose not to do surveillance. Explain why you chose or were limited in the kind of surveillance you could do.
A. Well, just law enforcement in general are trained in surveillance themselves. They conducted surveillance themselves.
Q. And when you say "law enforcement," you mean these defendants (indicating)?
A. Sure. We were very concerned, and we'd had instances in the past where it was called being burned, basically, being burned on surveillance, so you're spotted, essentially.

And anyone who's done enough surveillance knows what that -- that it happens. So we are particularly concerned about, given the gravity of the investigation, basically blowing it because we're following someone and we get seen.

We also had had an incident -- so that was even early on. We sort of made a conscious decision not to do a lot of surveillance.

The other problem is, you know, they operated, since this was occurring during -- much of it during the time when they were working, the neighborhoods they work in, we would have also just created this added, you know, more police vehicles, basically. A line of police vehicles driving around these neighborhoods wouldn't have been effective.

Also, we wouldn't have seen what was going on from surveillance. It would have been very, very difficult to get close enough to see what was actually happening, particularly inside houses and other places.

And then in August, we had had an instance when we were burned on surveillance.
Q. By whom?
A. Detective Gondo actually spotted our surveillance in mid-August at his residence one night.
Q. And then just last question. I think there were sort of questions back and forth, so $I$ just want to make sure it's clear. You were asked whether any paper vacation slips for the Dominican Republic trip that Defendant Taylor took were ever recovered.

Do you recall being asked about that?
A. Yes.
Q. Were any paper vacation slips ever recovered for Defendant Taylor for that trip to the Dominican Republic?
A. No. We didn't find any.

MR. WISE: Nothing further, Your Honor. Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
Mr. Purpura?
MR. PURPURA: Thank you. Just very, very briefly. RECROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. PURPURA:
Q. Special Agent Jensen, you were just asked by Mr. Wise about surveillance and you gave your reasons for not conducting surveillance; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And when Mr. Wise yesterday went through the particular racketeering acts involving the overtime, specific overtime fraud against Mr. Hersl, I would assume that surveillance at that point, just to see if a person's in Baltimore City or if he's in uniform or if he has his tactical vest on, that would not be particularly difficult, would it?
A. We -- only I think we have one occasion where we actually had -- we had a surveillance in front of BPD headquarters, and we did a surveillance of them arriving for work. I want to say it was like the 10:30 or 11 o'clock hour in the morning one morning, but we didn't do it otherwise.
Q. But that would be one way to verify if someone is at work or not at work; correct?
A. Well, we'd see them -- yeah. I mean, we would see them arrive, and then maybe it would be difficult to follow them after that, sure.
Q. Let me ask you a follow-up question on the bank accounts of Mr. Hersl.

Aside -- aside from Mr. Hersl's bank accounts, did you have or would you in this particular case look into relatives' bank accounts, mother's bank account to see if Mr. Hersl was giving them money or anything like that?
A. We didn't look into relatives' bank accounts. We did pull other bank accounts because I think they were in his name, but I think they were also in his mother's name. If I remember right, it was a Bank of America account. I don't recall the activity, per se, on it, though.
Q. But if there would have been some large cash deposits in his mother, Dorothy's account, that would be something that you would -- obviously would be a highlight; correct?
A. I would probably remember it, yes.
Q. Thank you. Okay.

And just as to the 150, the Ford F-150, that -- do you know if that vehicle was traded in?
A. Right. I don't know. That's what I'm saying. I know he had it beforehand. I can't tell you whether he traded it in.
Q. Okay. But he did acquire the Toyota 4 Runner just probably a month or two prior to his actually being arrested; correct?
A. I think it was pretty recent because I saw some paperwork about his car payments. It was in the area of like --
Q. That's what $I$ was trying to get to.
A. Right.
Q. These were car payments being made --
A. Yes.
Q. -- on that.

And you know that it's been repossessed since then?
A. I do not know that.

MR. PURPURA: Okay. Thank you.
No further questions.
THE COURT: Anything else?
(No response.)
THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
THE COURT: Agent, you can step down.
And we'll take a short recess.
(Jury left the courtroom at 11:31 a.m.)
(Recess taken.)
THE COURT: All right. You can be seated, please.
MR. PURPURA: Judge, just before the jury comes in, may we just approach on the scheduling?

THE COURT: Yes, sure.
MR. PURPURA: Thanks.
(Bench conference on the record:
MR. PURPURA: So I can tell you that Mr. Hersl is not going to testify, and I believe that the same --

MS. WICKS: Mr. Taylor will not be testifying.
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. PURPURA: I do have two witnesses who are present, ready to come forward. Hope to get them on as soon as the Government closes their -- with this last witness, which shouldn't be too long. We hope to do it before the 1 o'clock lunch break.

THE COURT: Appreciate your letting me know this.
I assumed that after the Government's last witness, we would take a brief recess for purposes of motions, if you want to make them for the record.

And perhaps at that point we could put on the record your clients' election and then go back to conclude with your witnesses.

MR. PURPURA: Right. Very good.
THE COURT: Does that work for everybody?
MR. WISE: It does, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Are you going to be calling witnesses,
Ms. Wicks?
MS. WICKS: We would be calling one or two agents to complete impeachments, but I think hopefully we will be able to work out that stipulation or a stipulation about the file for the picture of the ankle. So if we work out those as stipulations, we wouldn't have any testimony.

THE COURT: Okay. Just in timing, so I'm trying to figure out whether I'll be able to let the jury go. But do you know what the -- I mean, the one stipulation is the one we've talked about.

MR. WISE: Right.
THE COURT: That shouldn't be a problem.
MS. WICKS: The other two stipulations are just on certain dates at certain time -- certain dates, Donald Stepp spoke with the FBI, and he indicated that he had located three to four kilo wrappers.

Case 1:17-cr-00106-CCB Document 471 Filed 08/17/18 Page 65 of 173

And then the other one was during a proffer with Hendrix -- no. I'm sorry. The proffer with Gondo, he indicated that it was Jenkins, Taylor, and Hendrix that had driven down on the date Jenkins had the interaction with special -- with a federal agent when following an unnamed person.

THE COURT: All right. That sounds a bit more complicated, but maybe you can take it up in the break.

MR. WISE: Sure. I mean, I don't know what the -- we haven't talked about the first one, so I don't know what that is.

The second one, Ms. Wicks e-mailed me. And the Gondo proffer where this came up, Special Agent Smith was present. I asked him to look at his notes this morning.

The notes don't say, Taylor, Jenkins, Hendrix. They just describe the episode generally, and he doesn't have a memory -- I mean, he wrote the 302 . He'll say he wrote the 302. He doesn't have a memory of that specific piece of testimony. So --

MR. NIETO: But it was in the 302. The difference from Officer Gondo's testimony was that Officer Hendrix was included in his, apparently, proffer session. So notwithstanding the lack of notes, that's what the agent had authored in the 302 .

MS. WICKS: And I think there's two agents that were there during that proffer.

THE COURT: Okay. Well, again, I can't --
MR. WISE: Yeah, and I'm not exactly sure what it impeaches to have --

MS. WICKS: He denied that he said that. He denied that he put Hendrix in that vignette, shall we say.

THE COURT: Okay. If I'm following, there's something in the 302 that is inconsistent with the witness's testimony and you want to call a person that wrote the report to say you wrote this 302; it says in here X , and you believe that -- you take your notes accurately and consistently and just trying to point out that there's something in the 302 --

MS. WICKS: Right.
THE COURT: -- that was inconsistent with the witness's testimony.

MS. WICKS: We don't get the note. We got the 302 .
THE COURT: Right.
MS. WICKS: So if it's not his notes, it's the other agent's notes that were there --
the CoURT: Okay.
MS. WICKS: -- because it is what they communally wrote in the 302.

THE COURT: Notes are not necessarily relevant. You just want to show a discrepancy with what --
MS. WICKS: The report that he wrote up --
THE COURT: Right.
MS. WICKS: -- about what Gondo said and what Gondo said yesterday.

THE COURT: And this person that wrote the 302, are they here? Are they available?

MR. WISE: Yeah. He's ready. He's here.
THE COURT: Okay. So you can just call him.
MS. WICKS: Okay.
MR. WISE: And I don't know what the -- the Stepp thing, we haven't talked about it. I don't know what that is, so I don't know who --

MS. WICKS: Stepp had testified that there were, I think he said, four to ten kilo wrappers found in the storage unit where he took three-quarters of a kilo of cocaine. He indicated in -- the 302 indicates that he said three to four kilo wrappers. So it's another discrepancy.

THE COURT: I didn't hear the discrepancy.
MS. WICKS: He said -- under oath he said ten kilo -I can look at it. I don't have it up here, but I believe there's a discrepancy between what he said on direct and what he said in the 302.

MR. WISE: Do you know which agent wrote the 302?
MS. WICKS: I can bring it up.

MR. WISE: I don't know --
THE COURT: All right. Well, let's see if you can find that 302 and let the Government know --

MS. WICKS: Sure.
THE COURT: -- who that person is. But in the meantime, we'll go ahead, finishing the Government's case.)
(Bench conference concluded.)
THE COURT: Okay. I think we're ready for the jury.
(Jury entered the courtroom at 11:53 a.m.)
THE COURT: All right. You can be seated.
Is the Government calling another witness?
MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor. The United States calls Officer James Kostoplis.

THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.
POLICE OFFICER JAMES KOSTOPLIS, GOVERNMENT'S WITNESS, SWORN.
THE CLERK: Please be seated.
Please speak directly into the microphone. State your full name for the record and spell your last name, please.

THE WITNESS: James Kostoplis, K-O-S-T-O-P-L-I-S.
THE CLERK: Thank you.
THE COURT: You may go ahead.
MR. WISE: Thank you, Your Honor.

DIRECT EXAMINATION
BY MR. WISE:
Q. Good morning, Officer Kostoplis.
A. Good morning.
Q. What law enforcement agency do you serve with?
A. The Baltimore City Police Department.
Q. And when did you join the Baltimore City Police Department?
A. I originally joined the Baltimore City Police Department September 13th, 2011. Shortly after the riots, I left the department and went to another agency and then returned back to the department February 24th, 2016.
Q. Okay. And where did you go in between when you left and then came back? What were you doing?
A. I was working at a railroad police department.
Q. And where was that?
A. In North Jersey.
Q. Is that where you grew up?
A. I'm from Central Jersey, but it's close.
Q. And when you came back in February of 2016, where were you initially assigned?
A. I was initially assigned to the academy for a brief period, and then I was sent to the Northeast District.
Q. Now, at some point were you assigned -- once you came back and after you had been assigned to the Northeast District, were you assigned to the Gun Trace Task Force?
A. Yes.
Q. And when was that?
A. Towards the end of October.
Q. Of what year?
A. 2016 .
Q. All right. So towards the end of October in 2016 is when you were assigned to the Gun Trace Task Force?
A. Yes.
Q. How old were you at that time?
A. 26 .
Q. And who was responsible for you getting assigned to the Gun Trace Task Force at the end of October of 2016?
A. Sergeant Jenkins.
Q. And how long were you on the Gun Trace Task Force?
A. For a few months.
Q. And until when? What month?
A. I believe beginning of February.
Q. So from mid -- you were on the Gun Trace Task Force from,

I think you said, the end of October 2016 to the -- say, early February?
A. Yes.
Q. Of 2017; is that right?
A. Yes.
Q. And you testified that Sergeant Wayne Jenkins was responsible for getting you assigned, I guess, at the end of October; is that right?
A. Yes.
Q. And who was responsible for you getting transferred out of the Gun Trace Task Force just a few months later in February of 2017?
A. Sergeant Jenkins.
Q. Now, I just want to walk through those months you were there.

What happened to Wayne Jenkins a few weeks after you joined the unit at the end of October of 2016?
A. He took a leave.
Q. He took a what?
A. Like, I guess like an FMLA leave for him having a baby.
Q. And how long did he take for this leave?
A. Quite a while, maybe like a few months.
Q. So when was he gone, I guess, out of the unit? What months between late October when you joined and early February when you were transferred out?
A. So it would be -- I guess he -- I guess he came back sometime in January.
Q. All right. So after the first of the year?
A. Yes.
Q. And you said he left just a few weeks after you started at the end of October?

A. Yes.
Q. When he was gone, who was in charge?
A. Ward was in charge for a little while, and then we had Sergeant Blackwell for a little bit. And then I think we might have had a couple of like interim supervisors maybe for a day or two, but . . .
Q. What kind of work did you do while Jenkins was away for, I guess, almost your entire time on the GTTF?
A. Not really much of anything.
Q. What was the GTTF doing at that time?
A. Nothing.
Q. Did you try to work?
A. Yes. I suggested that we maybe go to the ranges that are around Baltimore and check the shooters' logs to see if maybe any prohibited persons are, you know, shooting a gun there. But, you know, that idea was shot down.

They said, No, we don't -- we don't do that here.
And being the new guy, $I$ wasn't sure if there was maybe a reason for that, but $I$ just was like, Okay.
Q. And who was -- you've talked about Jenkins, but who was on the GTTF for that period of time when you were there between the end of October 2016 and early February 2017?
A. Ward, Gondo, Hendrix, Hersl, and Taylor.
Q. Now, you gave the example of suggesting going out to the ranges to look for prohibited persons; right?
A. Right.
Q. So that was shot down?
A. Uh-huh.
Q. Were there some things you were able to do?
A. I was able to start looking up 9-1-1 calls for armed persons and going back through to see if there was maybe any callback information to try and see if I could, you know, get more information about people with guns in neighborhoods.
Q. So is it accurate to say you were trying to work during this period?
A. Yes.
Q. Were you able to work any overtime in that period?
A. Yes.
Q. And what sort of things did you do when you were working overtime?
A. I did jail calls. I did -- there was some crime-suppression overtime that was available. I think it was in the tri-district. And I worked one day in patrol.
Q. And so when you put in for overtime in that period, did you actually work those hours?
A. Yes.
Q. Now, what were the other members that you've identified doing during this time?
A. Not really much of anything.
Q. And at some point -- and that includes Defendant Hersl and Defendant Taylor?

A. Yes.
Q. Now, at some point did Jenkins come back --
A. Yes, he did.
Q. -- off of this extended leave?
A. Yes.
Q. When he came back, what did he ask you to do?
A. He approached me in the office and asked if I -- he said I was -- like, we're going to go for a ride real quick.
Q. And did you go for a ride with --
A. Yes.
Q. -- Jenkins?

And who else went with you?
A. Hersl.
Q. Did you know why you were going for a ride?
A. No.
Q. Did you ask?
A. Yes.
Q. And what did Jenkins tell you?
A. We're just going for a ride real quick.
Q. Whose car did you go in?
A. Jenkins'.
Q. And who was in the car with you?
A. It was me, Hersl, and Jenkins.
Q. And where did Jenkins take you?
A. It was a little side street right -- not too far from headquarters.
Q. So you left headquarters and drove to a little side street?
A. Right.
Q. And then what happened when you got to the side street?
A. We -- he stopped the van. He asked that I leave all my equipment and my phone in the car.
Q. Who is that? Who asked you that?
A. Sergeant Jenkins.
Q. Okay. Did you know why he was asking you to leave your phone in the car?
A. I was kind of unsure. I just was like, All right.
Q. And your other equipment, like your vest and things like that?
A. Like radio and stuff like that.
Q. Oh, radio. Okay.

And did you?
A. Yes.
Q. And then what happened?
A. We -- the three of us walked to the rear of the van.
Q. And who is the three of you?
A. Sergeant Jenkins, Hersl, and myself.
Q. Okay. And then what happened after you walked to the rear of the van?
A. Sergeant Jenkins -- I don't remember the exact wording, but he was like, Well, what do you think about this? We conduct like -- like an investigation. We start following around a -- like a high-level drug dealer, find out where he's keeping all his cash and his money, and we just go take it. Q. And when he said that to you, where was Hersl standing?
A. Next to Jenkins.
Q. And what was your reaction when Jenkins asked you that question?
A. Excuse my language, but I said, "No. That's a terrible fucking idea. You know, you can't have a badge on your chest and do things like that. You know, the fact that law enforcement doesn't do that is what separates law enforcement from criminals."
Q. And who did you say that to?
A. Hersl and Jenkins.
Q. And when you said that, what, if anything, was their reaction?
A. Their reaction kind of was like, Oh, yeah, that's a bad idea. And then we just got in the car and went back to headquarters.
Q. And then what happened shortly after that?
A. Shortly after that, I was transferred out of the unit to Sergeant Moore's squad.
Q. And did Jenkins give you any reason for why he -- well, who transferred you out of the squad?

A. Jenkins.
Q. Did he give you any reason for why he did that?
A. He said he was on the lieutenant's list and that, you know, he had a lot of complaints. He wanted to get rid of the complaints. They weren't going to be going on the street. And he knows I like being on the street, so he's -- he said I would go to Sergeant Moore's squad so I could be on the street.
Q. And did you go to Sergeant Moore's squad?
A. Yes.
Q. And then shortly after that, did you see Jenkins and the rest of the GTTF out on the street?
A. Yes.

Can I have a glass of water real quick?
Q. Sure.

Now, at the time in early February, why did you think Jenkins was asking you that question about taking money from a drug dealer?

MS. WICKS: Objection.
THE COURT: Sustained.
BY MR. WISE:
Q. When you saw that the rest of the Gun Trace Task Force had been arrested on March 1st, what, if anything, did you do?
A. I contacted the FBI.
Q. And why did you do that?
A. Because I realized that what he had asked me that night wasn't -- wasn't a test to see if whether I could be trusted around large amounts of money; but he was, in fact, asking me to steal money.

MR. WISE: Nothing further, Your Honor.
THE COURT: All right. Mr. Purpura.
MR. PURPURA: Thank you, Your Honor. CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. PURPURA:
Q. Officer Kostoplis, good afternoon, sir.
A. How you doing?
Q. Fine. We've never met before, have we?
A. No.
Q. And we never discussed this case --
A. No.
Q. -- in person, by phone, nothing; correct?
A. No.
Q. You met with Mr. Wise before?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. He prepared you to testify today -- well, not prepared. He spoke to you about your testimony today; is that fair to say?
A. Like typical pretrial meetings, yes.
Q. I'm sorry?
A. Typical pretrial meetings, yes.
Q. Very typical. That's what you're used to as a police officer, in speaking to the State's Attorney or the Assistant U.S. Attorney before you testify; correct?
A. Right.
Q. Okay. Fine. And let me take you back quickly.

You joined the force in 2011?
A. Yes.
Q. And you indicated you were on the force for approximately about four years and then you resigned for a period of time; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And when you were on the force from September 2011 through the Freddie Gray riots, where were you stationed?
A. Northeast.
Q. Northeast?
A. Yes.
Q. And you left soon after the Freddie Gray riots; is that correct? That's sometime in April or May of 2015?
A. Yes, sometime around that.
Q. Was there a reason for that?
A. I wanted to move back to New Jersey to kind of be closer to family. So --
Q. Was there problems in the police department after the Freddie Gray riots, officers a little nervous to make arrests and kind of a bad relationship between the hierarchy and the people on the street?
A. I'm not really sure. I didn't really stick around much after the riots. This was something that I had planned before the riots to go. It was a pretty long process getting hired by the railroad police.
Q. And you got out right after the riots; correct?
A. Right.
Q. You didn't stay very long with the railroad police; correct?
A. No.
Q. Okay. And then you came back. You wanted to come back here to Baltimore to be -- continue to be a Baltimore City police officer; correct, sir?
A. Correct.
Q. All right. And you contacted Wayne Jenkins at that time; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Because you worked with Wayne Jenkins in the past; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And when you worked with Wayne Jenkins in the past, at least to your knowledge, he wasn't taking money or drugs from people at that time, was he?
A. No, I didn't believe he was doing that.
Q. As a matter of fact, I think what you testified to before in the grand jury is that Wayne told you two things; right?
A. He had two rules.
Q. And what were the two rules?
A. You don't take money, and you don't put stuff on people.
Q. And that's what he told you; correct?
A. Yeah; the first day $I$ ever worked with him.
Q. And so based on that, you wanted to come back and work with him again; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And when you came back, you had to work the streets for a little bit of time; right?
A. Yeah.
Q. And then you came onto the GTTF; is that correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And before Wayne Jenkins took off with the birth of his child, what kind of work were you doing?
A. Like street enforcement.
Q. What's that?
A. Just being on the street.
Q. Getting guns and getting drugs?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And when you went out on the street, who did you go out with?
A. Usually with Jenkins.
Q. Okay. Did you go out with Dan Hersl?
A. What was that?
Q. Did you go out with Dan Hersl on the street?
A. I think a few times, yeah. I think the majority of the time in our car -- I can't remember if Hersl was with us the whole time, but I know Taylor was with us.
Q. Okay. And you mentioned about that Jenkins, when Jenkins left, there was inactivity in the GTTF; is that correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And Sergeant Blackwell was your sergeant at that time; correct?
A. During the period, yeah.
Q. And was there a standing order by the sergeant which came down from the lieutenant that the GTTF should stand down for a period?
A. Not that I can recall. I'm not sure.
Q. At least you didn't know; is that fair to say?
A. Yeah, that's fair to say.
Q. But during this time period, you still managed to work some overtime; is that correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Do you know how much overtime you worked from October through January of 2016 with the GTTF?
A. I'm not sure. I know during 2016, I worked -- I believe it was around 8300 was my annual income for overtime for that year.
Q. $$ 8300$ for that year?
A. Uh-huh.
Q. In 2016?
A. Yes.
Q. And 2017, did you work some overtime as well?
A. Yeah. I've worked a little bit more 2017.
Q. Okay. Do you remember what that was for the time you were at the GTTF?
A. I'm sorry?
Q. Do you know how much overtime you worked for the GTTF in 2017?
A. I'm not sure.
Q. Okay. And just as to this incident, when Jenkins spoke to you about drug dealers, do you remember when that was?
A. It was sometime shortly after he came back. You're talking about the meeting outside the --
Q. I am, yes, sir.
A. Sometime after he had come back from FMLA or whatever kind of leave that was.
Q. And as Mr. Wise brought out, you did not report that incident until you read about the indictment; is that correct, sir?
A. Correct.
Q. Okay. And that's when you went in sometime that day to either IAD or some other person at Baltimore City Police and reported this incident; is that correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And that's when you were interviewed, I believe, by Special Agent Jensen, and there was a follow-up interview as well; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. But shortly before that, I believe at the very end of February of 2017, you were called down to IAD with other members of your squad in reference to a damaged vehicle.

Do you remember that?
A. No, I don't remember that in February.
Q. Okay. Let me see if I can refresh your recollection.

I'm going to show you what has been marked as Defense Exhibit No. 35 for identification only, and that would be the 302 dated March 2nd.

And I'll ask you if you recall you were interviewed by a Task Force Officer Matthew Smith and another police detective, Jared Stern.

Do you remember those interviews?
A. Yes.
Q. I'm just going to ask you not to read out loud, but just read to yourself the final paragraph here and see if that refreshes your recollection. (Handing.)
A. (Reviews exhibit.)

Oh, yes. Okay. I know what you're talking about.
Q. It does refresh your recollection; is that correct, sir?
A. Yes.
Q. So you do recall that in the end of February, you were called in to IAD in reference to damage to an unmarked Impala; is that correct, sir?
A. Yes.
Q. And during that time when you spoke to the IAD officers, you did not at that time volunteer any information about this statement you just told the jury; is that correct, sir?
A. Wait. Wait. Wait. Wait. No, no, no. What you just showed me was a meeting where Jenkins called the whole squad to a location. Can I see what you're telling me again?
Q. Sure. Absolutely.
A. I don't understand what your --
Q. Refresh your recollection. Absolutely.

Do you remember the incident at all? Okay. Take a look.
A. This one right here, right?
Q. Yes. Read it to yourself.
A. (Reviews exhibit.)

This --
Q. Hold on one second.

Now, you met with Jenkins to discuss -- Jenkins and other members of the squad to discuss the damage to the vehicle; is that correct? Or did you not?
A. I don't -- I don't understand what you're asking here.
Q. What I'm asking is this: Before, before you gave the -this information to the Government on March 1st, 2017, did you go down to IAD and speak to anyone in IAD about this information at any time?
A. Not that I recall. The only time $I$ went down to AI -- IAD was for a complaint for my own.
Q. Okay. Obviously, you could go down to IAD at any time if you had some information involving a police officer who suggested something wrong; is that fair to say?
A. I suppose so; however, I mean, if you're referring to the meeting that we had, I didn't believe at the time that he was being serious. I thought he was testing me to see if I could be trusted around money.
Q. I guess that is what I'm referring to.
A. Right.
Q. So from the time whenever that happened, up until March 1st of 2017, you -- obviously you had the opportunity to --

A. I had the opportunity if I believed --
Q. Okay. Hold on. Relax.

You had the opportunity to go into IAD or to speak to anyone else in the hierarchy at BPD about what occurred in this conversation; correct? Just yes or no and we'll let you explain.
A. I don't really understand how that would be correct because that's not what $I$ believed at the time. I mean -Q. Fair enough.

What you believed at the time was that Jenkins was just testing you or just being Jenkins fooling around; is that fair to say, then?
A. Correct.
Q. Okay. So you really didn't think anything wrong at that point, just that it was just like a crazy thing that Jenkins was suggesting; correct?
A. Right.
Q. Okay. Now, do you recall -- you don't remember the date that this happened; that's fair to say?
A. I'm not sure of the date.
Q. Do you remember, was it in January -beginning? middle end?
A. I believe it was maybe towards the end of January. I'm not a hundred percent sure.
Q. Okay. And at that point where did Jenkins approach you?
A. What do you mean?
Q. To say, "Come with me in the van."
A. In the office.
Q. Okay. And who's in the office?
A. I'm not sure if the whole squad was there, but I know there was a handful -- handful of us in the office.
Q. Okay. And so he did this in front of a handful of people in the office at that time; correct?
A. I believe so.
Q. Okay. And were you at your desk? Where were you?
A. I'm not sure. I don't think I was at my desk. I think I was sitting by -- we had like a TV in the office. I think I was sitting over by that.
Q. Okay. And when he approached you, he said, "Let's take a ride"; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And at that point where was Detective, at that time, Hersl?
A. I believe he was standing next to Jenkins.
Q. Now, do you believe or can you picture this? Do you know?
A. I'm pretty sure, pretty sure he was standing next to Jenkins.
Q. And then at that time all three of you left; is that correct?
A. Right.
Q. And you're working at that point; right? This is working time?
A. I believe so.
Q. Well, when you finish work, do you stay at the office?
A. Yeah, sometimes I'll hang out for a few minutes.
Q. Do you think you were hanging out at this point, or do you think you were working?
A. I'm not sure. I don't remember.
Q. Okay. All right. And then at that point you go out and you get into the working van; is that correct? Was that a van?
A. Right.
Q. And that's what Jenkins used when he was working; correct?
A. I'm pretty sure he used it all the time.
Q. All right. Personal business and working business; right?
A. Right.
Q. Okay. And where were you in the van?
A. I think I was in the backseat.
Q. Okay. You were in the backseat?
A. I'm not -- was I? I'm actually -- I'm actually not sure where $I$ was sitting in the van, to be honest, now that I'm thinking back. I'm not a hundred percent sure.
Q. Then what happens, you go for a short ride. And Jenkins basically tells you and Hersl to get out of the car, right, at that point?
A. I -- I don't remember if he asked Hersl to get out of the car.
Q. Well, did Hersl sit in the car and stay in the car?
A. No.
Q. And so he stops the car and says, "Get out"; right?
"Let's get out"; right?
A. Right.
Q. Something has to happen to have you leave the car; right?
A. Right.
Q. So he stops the car. And Jenkins says, "Get out of the car"; right?
A. (Nods head.)
Q. Not only you, but Hersl leaves his radio and his cell phone in the car as well; right?
A. I -- I don't know. I'm not -- I don't know if he had his stuff with him or not. I assume so -- I assume he left it in the car.
Q. Yeah. Because that's what Jenkins said. He said, "Leave your cell phone and your police radios here in the car"; right?
A. Right.
Q. All right. And that's what you did; right?
A. Right.
Q. And you assume that Hersl did the same thing; correct?
A. Yeah.
Q. And then what happens is that you -- Jenkins talks to you, says something directly to you; right?
A. Right.
Q. Something which you didn't believe he was being truthful about; correct?
A. Right.
Q. And then you said, as you said, It's an f'ing bad idea, et cetera; right?
A. Right.
Q. And Jenkins said, "Yeah, it is a bad idea"; right?
A. Right.
Q. And Hersl said it's a bad idea; correct?
A. I believe they both agreed that it was a bad idea.
Q. A bad idea.

And at that point -- actually, if you -- I want you to think back at this point. At that point you don't go directly back to the Baltimore police station, do you?
A. I thought we did. I'm . . .
Q. Do you remember going to -- you know on the west side -you're on the west side of Baltimore when this occurs; correct?
A. I thought it was like right down the street from headquarters.
Q. A couple blocks away?
A. Close.
Q. Do you remember driving near the Hippodrome on your way back?
A. No.
Q. Do you remember Wayne stopping the vehicle and there was someone involved in a drug deal that Wayne chased after; the person dropped their drugs at that time? Think.
A. I'm not -- I'm not sure. I really don't remember.
Q. Do you remember after that, after Wayne chased that person, that you then went over towards -- you know where the Lexington Terrace used to be? That's before your time,

Lexington Terrace?
A. I'm really not --
Q. You went over to Martin Luther King Boulevard area. Do you remember that, looking for, in particular, a black Jeep which was a target?

Do you remember doing that?
A. I don't remember, no.
Q. Do you remember after that that you continued on duty and you drove over to North and Pennsylvania Avenue?
A. I don't remember.
Q. Do you remember driving right back?
A. I thought we drove right back.
Q. Do you remember, finally, that actually there was a patrol vehicle that was following the van and Wayne tried to speed up to get away, get away from it, and he turned around a corner?
A. I don't know if that was the same night or not, but $I$ do remember him doing that 'cause I wanted him to stop.
Q. Right. Right. Right. And at that point actually the patrol vehicle caught up to you all and Wayne showed his badge; right?
A. Right.
Q. Same night, though.
A. I'm not sure if it was the same night, though. I mean, I really don't remember if that's the same night or not.
Q. And you indicated you transferred out soon after this;
correct?
A. Right.
Q. Right. And you also know that at that time

Detective Hersl transferred out the end of January to Citywide Shooting; correct?
A. Yes.

MR. PURPURA: Thank you.
I have no further questions.
THE COURT: All right. Ms. Wicks?
MS. WICKS: Court's indulgence.
CROSS-EXAMINATION
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. Good morning, Officer.
A. Good morning.
Q. Prior to leaving the Baltimore Police Department and going to the railroad police department in New Jersey, you had worked for Sergeant Jenkins; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And you had worked for him in the Northeast District; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And how long did you work with him there?
A. I think a couple months.
Q. Okay. And you didn't have any concerns after working with him for a couple months in the Northeast District; correct?
A. No.
Q. When you came back to Baltimore, you contacted him about -- 'cause you wanted to work on his squad; correct?
A. Right.
Q. And you were advised that you would have to go to patrol, but then you could come to GTTF; correct?
A. Right.
Q. And during the time before -- well, while you were in the squad, there was -- other than apparently this one incident that at the time you thought was a joke, you didn't see anything that you deemed questionable; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And you -- before -- well, during the time that Sergeant Jenkins was out of the unit, Ward was your superior; correct?
A. Yeah, for a little while.
Q. Okay. And Sergeant Blackwell was; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And other sergeants sometimes just for the day?
A. Yeah. I think we had like a couple pop in for like a day or two, but I don't really remember.
Q. And that would be the person that you would take the order from in terms of what you are supposed to be doing on that day; correct?
A. Right.
Q. And apparently, while you made suggestions in terms of the hierarchy, you were told not to do those things; correct?
A. Right.
Q. You -- there were gun arrests conducted during that fall; correct?
A. During the fall, what do you mean?
Q. The fall of 2016 and the -- between your time on GTF [sic] from October 2006 to February 2017, you made -- you were part of the team that --

MR. WISE: It's not 2006. You meant 2016.
BY MS. WICKS:
Q. From October 2016 to February 2017, you were on the Gun Trace Task Force; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And during that time, the Gun Trace Task Force made gun arrests; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And you were part of the team that made those arrests; correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And you conducted drug investigation on Pennsylvania Avenue; correct?
A. I guess so. I don't really remember, like, particulars about like what investigations we were working or anything.
Q. And during that time period you were wearing a body cam;
correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And your body cam would record what the other officers on the unit were doing; correct?
A. Right.
Q. And their body cams -- some of the other officers in the unit, and specifically Detective Taylor, was at that point wearing a body cam; correct?
A. Yeah.
Q. And so his body cam would be recording what you were doing; correct?
A. Yeah.
Q. And during the time that you were on the squad, did you request days off?
A. Yes.
Q. During the time that Jenkins was there?
A. I don't remember if $I$ put in any days while he was there. I'm not sure.
Q. How would you characterize his work in the administrative role as your sergeant?
A. I guess he was, like, okay at admin.
Q. Okay. You didn't see anything unusual?
A. Not really, no. I can't think of anything.

MS. WICKS: Okay. Thank you.
No further questions, Your Honor.

brief.
MR. PURPURA: Fair enough. So my thought was maybe you want to let them go for an early lunch and come back at 1:30 and then we'll finish.

THE COURT: The thought crossed my mind as well. But if you wanted to get your witnesses on and off, you know . . .

MR. PURPURA: I'd like to. We'll go. We'll move.
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. PURPURA: Thanks.)
(Bench conference concluded.)
THE COURT: Mr. Wise?
MR. WISE: At this time, Your Honor, the United States rests.

THE COURT: All right.
Now, ladies and gentlemen, that means, subject to checking exhibits, of course, that the Government has finished presenting its evidence.

I need to take a short recess; just ask you all to step back in the jury room for a few minutes.
(Jury left the courtroom at 12:29 p.m.)
THE COURT: Thanks. You can be seated.
Mr. Purpura?
MR. PURPURA: Your Honor, thank you.
We're ready to call witnesses.
But, first, I think the Court wants an advisement of rights as to the defendants; is that correct?
THE COURT: Yes, please. If you would like to do that as to Mr. Hersl, obviously Mr. Taylor could be listening. And then we'll see what Ms. Wicks wants to add.

Go ahead.
MR. PURPURA: Very good.
Mr. Hersl, as I told you many months ago, there would come a time you have the opportunity -- and it's your choice and only your choice in this particular situation -- whether you wish to testify and/or remain silent; is that correct, sir?

DEFENDANT HERSL: Correct.
MR. PURPURA: And you understand what cross-examination is. If you chose to testify, the Government could cross-examine you. They could ask you questions in a leading manner, much the way I've been doing for the past three weeks.

Do you understand that, sir?
DEFENDANT HERSL: Yes, sir.
MR. PURPURA: They could also ask you about any criminal record which would be appropriate under the criminal rules, the federal criminal rules. My understanding is you have no criminal record; is that correct, sir?

DEFENDANT HERSL: That's correct.
MR. PURPURA: Now, knowing all this, sir, is it your wish at this time to testify and to remain silent?

record, Mr. Taylor, I understand that it is your choice, after time to consult with counsel and understanding your rights, it is your choice not to testify; is that correct?

DEFENDANT TAYLOR: Yes, ma'am.
THE COURT: All right.
MR. PURPURA: And, Your Honor, just generally, I'll make a motion under Rule 29 for a judgment of acquittal as to the four counts involving Mr. Hersl. And I would submit on the argument, without any further argument.

THE COURT: All right.
MS. WICKS: Your Honor, I'd make the same motion and submit as well on behalf of Mr . Taylor.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, the Rule 29 motions will be denied because $I$ believe that, looking at the evidence in the light most favorable to the Government, there is sufficient evidence that's been proffered, if believed by the jury, to sustain a verdict in favor of the Government on all the counts.

Shall we call the jury back in and see if we can get your two witnesses?

MR. PURPURA: Thanks.
Your Honor, may I have the detective take the stand at this time?

THE COURT: Sure.
MR. PURPURA: Detective Romeo.
(Jury entered the courtroom at 12:41 p.m.)
THE COURT: You can all be seated, except for the witness. I'm sorry.

Mr. Purpura, you're calling a witness?
MR. PURPURA: Your Honor, if I may, on behalf of Mr. Hersl, the defense calls Detective Timothy Romeo.

THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.
DETECTIVE TIMOTHY ROMEO, DEFENDANT HERSL'S WITNESS, SWORN.
THE CLERK: Please speak directly into the microphone. State your full name for the record and spell your last name, please.

THE WITNESS: Timothy Romeo, R-O-M-E-O.
THE CLERK: Thank you.
MR. PURPURA: Thank you.
DIRECT EXAMINATION
BY MR. PURPURA:
Q. Detective Romeo, where are you employed?
A. Baltimore City Police Department.
Q. And how long have you worked as a Baltimore City policeman?
A. I'm in my tenth year.

A. January of '09.
Q. And can you just briefly tell us what units you've worked at since you came on as a BPD?
A. I was in patrol. I was in the Monument Street initiative. And then $I$ was in OID, SES, which are citywide units, narcotics, gun units.
Q. And what are you doing now?
A. Right now I'm in Eastern District DAT, District Action Team, same thing, narcotics and guns.
Q. Very good.

And I'm going to direct your attention to November 5th, 2014. And before I do that, we actually met physically in the hallway today for the first time; is that correct, sir?
A. Yes.
Q. I have been able to speak with you a couple times on the phone; is that also correct, sir?
A. That's correct.
Q. In addition to meeting with me in the hallway, you met with Mr. Rafter at least for a few minutes in the hallway today as well; is that correct, sir?
A. Yes.
Q. Other than that, have we had any contact whatsoever with each other?
A. No.
Q. And also is it fair to say that you met -- or you didn't meet, but you spoke with a Special Agent Lisa Christy and Assistant United States Attorneys Christina Hoffman and
P.J. Martinez back in December via phone; is that correct, sir?
A. Yes.
Q. And in general, $I$ believe we're all discussing the same thing, which are I'm going to take you to November 5th, 2014, Jimmie Griffin.

Do you remember that case?
A. Yes.
Q. I'm going to show you what has been marked as Defense Exhibit No. 36.

Do you recognize that man?
A. Yes.
Q. Who is that?
A. That's Jimmie Griffin.

A. Yes.
Q. What is that house?
A. That's Jimmie Griffin's home.
Q. Very good.

And if I may, sir, directing your attention back to November 5th, 2014, what was your role in the investigation?
A. I was in the same squad as Detective Hersl.
Q. And what were you doing?
A. I was assisting him on an investigation up off of Pinewood.
Q. And where were you on Pinewood? Where were you actually physically located and approximately what time, if you can remember? Was it around 12:00 noon?
A. When we were on Pinewood, it was about 4, 4:30 we executed a search warrant.
Q. Before that, before the search warrant was executed?
A. Yes, before the search warrant was executed, I was standby with Sergeant Burns and Detective Fassl as part of the arrest team.
Q. And did there come a time that you were involved in a stop of a vehicle?
A. Yes.
Q. Can you please tell us about that.
A. Yes. We were notified by Detective Hersl to -- about a vehicle that was coming from Pinewood who was inside of the location. He had a brake light out. When he came out onto Harford Road, we eventually conducted a traffic stop on that vehicle.
Q. And what happened at that point, after the traffic stop?
A. At that point I made contact with the driver, who was George Lee. I got all of his information and from there told him that another detective would be coming to speak with him pending, you know, another investigation that was being conducted by that person.
Q. Okay. And did Detective Hersl then arrive at the scene?
A. Yes.
Q. And was a K9 called?
A. Yes. Eventually a K 9 was called and alerted on the vehicle.
Q. And what do you mean by "alerted on the vehicle"?
A. A K9 does an external scan of the vehicle. And when the K9 catches the odor of a controlled, dangerous substance, it will alert.
Q. Okay. And this was the vehicle that George Lee was the driver; is that correct?
A. That's correct.
Q. And was the vehicle searched?
A. Yes.
Q. And what was found in the vehicle?
A. I believe it was like $$ 8,500$ in cash in the center console and some sandwich bags with residue.
Q. And this vehicle was seen leaving the target residence; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And that's Jimmie Griffin's residence right here; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Did you see the vehicle leave?
A. No.
Q. After the stop of George Lee, there was a warrant prepared; is that correct?
A. That is correct.
Q. And that was for Jimmie Griffin's residence; is that correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Were you part of the team involved with the search of the residence?
A. Yes.
Q. And approximately now, what time is this in the afternoon on November 5th?
A. $4: 00,4: 30$.
Q. Can you give us an idea how many people are involved in the team that searched Jimmie Griffin's residence?
A. Ten to a dozen.
Q. Any names, if you can remember? I know it's been a long time. I apologize.
A. Sergeant Burns, Sergeant Bailey, myself, Detective Hersl, Detective Fassl, Detective Iacovo, and then I guess the rest of Sergeant Bailey's squad.
Q. And do you recall that there was a large amount of heroin and paraphernalia and scales and kilo press seized?
A. Yes.
Q. And if I show you what has been now marked as Defense Exhibit No. 37 --
(Counsel conferred.)
BY MR. PURPURA:
Q. -- can you tell the jury briefly what this is?
A. Yes. What this is is a 56 evidence form, just documenting everything that was seized and submitted.
Q. At least what was seized by you; is that correct?
A. Yes, that's correct.
Q. And so you are the responsible officer and submitting officer (indicating); is that correct?
A. That's correct.
Q. And why would you seize packaging material?
A. 'Cause it's indicative of drug distribution.
Q. And why personal documents?
A. To prove that that person was staying at the location.
Q. And who was that person?
A. Jimmie Griffith [sic].
Q. And where were these documents seized?
A. From the basement.
Q. And how about what's -- scales, why is that important?
A. Scales are for weighing of the product.
Q. "Product" meaning the heroin that was seized?
A. Yes.
Q. And finally, why would you seize a red bandana?
A. 'Cause it proves affiliation to a gang, the Bloods gang.
Q. And I'm sorry. I missed that. What gang is that, the red bandana?
A. Bloods.
Q. Thank you.

Sometime after you were at the Pinewood residence, did you or did you not receive information that Jimmie Griffin, the target, was at another location?
A. That's correct.
Q. And what happened at that point?
A. At that point, when we left the dwelling of his residence, we went to the secondary location to place him under arrest.
Q. And just ballpark -- I know you probably don't remember exactly where you went, but how far away was this from the Pinewood location?
A. Maybe 10 to 15 minutes.
Q. And when you say you went or we went, who's the "we," if you recall?
A. I know it was at least air squad, myself, Detective Hersl, Detective Fassl, Iacovo, and Sergeant Burns.
Q. Okay. And if I didn't ask you, I apologize. Whose investigation was this?
A. Detective Hersl.
Q. And were you present when Jimmie Griffin -- when Jimmie Griffin was located?
A. Yes.
Q. And can you tell the jury, where is Jimmie Griffin located?
A. He was located in the -- I guess you could call it like a backyard, back driveway. I'm not sure if he was inside a vehicle or outside a vehicle with approximately three to four other persons.
Q. So approximately, you said, three to four other people around Jimmie Griffin?
A. Yes.
Q. And these are not police officers; right?
A. No.
Q. All right. And how many police officers, ballpark, were there at that time when Jimmie Griffin is eyeballed?
A. I would say probably three or four of us.
Q. And what happened next to Jimmie Griffin?
A. We took him into custody.
Q. And who actually arrested Jimmie Griffin in your presence?
A. Detective Hersl.
Q. And when Jimmie Griffin was arrested, was he searched?
A. Yes.
Q. And who searched him?
A. Detective Hersl.
Q. And were you present when Detective Hersl searched Jimmie Griffin?
A. Yes.
Q. And did you see Detective Hersl go into Jimmie Griffin's pockets?
A. Yes.
Q. And what did he pull out, if you recall?
A. U.S. currency.
Q. Okay. Do you know how much currency he pulled out of the pocket?
A. At that point in time, no, not until we went back to the district and everything was counted up.
Q. And how much had you learned that he pulled out of the pocket?
A. $$ 900$.
Q. Now, was it a large wad?
A. No.
Q. Did it appear to be anything close to $$ 6,000$ ?
A. No.
Q. Is that the same thing you told Government counsel when they called you on the phone in December?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you at any time pull Jimmie Griffin's pants down?
A. No.
Q. Was there a rectum search of Jimmie Griffin at the scene there?
A. No.
Q. After the money was taken from Jimmie Griffin, what happened to Jimmie Griffin?
A. Jimmie Griffin was placed under arrest and transported.
Q. Thank you.

Last question, if I may, would be that you were the person that actually -- and this is a Government exhibit. I don't know the number, so I'll just make this defense --

MR. HINES: JG-1.
MR. PURPURA: What is it?
MR. HINES: JG-1.
MR. PURPURA: JG-1.
BY MR. PURPURA:
Q. Showing you what has been already entered as JG-1, do you recognize this?
A. Yes.
Q. And what is this?
A. This is the 56, the evidence form where the U.S. currency was submitted.
Q. And you are the submitting person; is that correct?
A. That is correct.
Q. And the amount you submitted, you said 900 was seized from Jimmie Griffin; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And so do you know exactly how much was seized from the safe?
A. 4,003 .
Q. Thank you.

Were you present when the safe was searched?
A. No.

Douglas J. Zweizig, RDR, CRR - Federal Official Court Reporter
Q. Do you know who was present when the safe was searched?
A. No.

MR. PURPURA: Thank you. No further questions. Thank you very much, Detective.

THE COURT: All right. Let me just be --
MS. WICKS: No questions. Thank you, Your Honor.
THE COURT: No questions?
Okay. All right. Mr. Hines.
CROSS-EXAMINATION
BY MR. HINES:
Q. All right. Detective Romeo, good morning, sir.
A. Good morning.
Q. We're also just meeting for the first time -- the CLERK: Excuse me, Mr. Hines, microphone.
Thank you.
BY MR. HINES:
Q. Detective Romeo, we're also just meeting for the first time today; correct?
A. Correct.
Q. I haven't shown you any documents or any evidence or anything like that before your testimony today?
A. No.
Q. When you met with counsel for Mr. Hersl, they showed you a statement of probable cause or some other documents from the episode?
A. Yes.
Q. Did they show you any bank records for a woman named Miss Irby?
A. No.
Q. Are you aware that Jimmie Griffin, his cousin

Tyrone Creighton, and his Aunt Samara Irby received lead settlement payments?
A. No.
Q. Are you aware that Ms. Irby gave Mr. Griffin $$ 6,000$ immediately prior to his arrest?
A. No.
Q. Defense counsel didn't show you any of those records?
A. No.
Q. Directing your attention now to the surveillance leading up to November 5th, 2014, you said you pulled over someone named George Lee?
A. Yes.
Q. And there was some money found in his vehicle; is that right?
A. Correct.
Q. But you didn't see him leave Jimmie Griffin's residence?
A. I did not, no.
Q. Okay. And when you went to Evesham, you said that Daniel Hersl is the one that put Mr. Griffin in handcuffs? A. Yes.
Q. And Daniel Hersl is the one that took his money out of his pocket?
A. Yes.
Q. And what did Daniel Hersl do with that money then? Did he put it in his own pocket?
A. I don't know exactly what he did with it. But once we gathered up all the evidence, we put it in the car. And then we went back to the district.
Q. When you were at Evesham, did Daniel Hersl count out the money in front of you?
A. No.
Q. So you don't know how much money Mr. Griffin had on his person when he was at Evesham?
A. No.
Q. When you went back to headquarters, Mr. Hersl gave you some money?
A. Yes. We had all the evidence that was to be submitted.
Q. And the money that Hersl gave you, did you submit that money?
A. Yes.
Q. Just to be clear, did Daniel Hersl give you $$ 4,903$ ?
A. Yes; from the residence and from Mr. Griffin's person.
Q. So you didn't keep any additional money from this episode?
A. Absolutely not.

MR. HINES: No further questions, Your Honor.

Thank you, sir.
THE COURT: Thank you. Anything further, Mr. Purpura?
MR. PURPURA: Nothing. Thank you.
Thank you, Detective.
(Witness excused.)
THE COURT: Could I see counsel, please, at the bench. (Bench conference on the record:

THE COURT: Just seeing that it's basically 1 o'clock, we still have a witness left and you have something that -somebody that you want to call and/or look at a stipulation on.

So I think we might as well take lunch and then have your second witness. And by perhaps over lunch, you all can figure out if you're calling Mr. Smith or a stipulation or whatever. Okay?

MR. PURPURA: Thank you.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you.)
(Bench conference concluded.)
THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen, this looks like a good time for the lunch recess, so we'll be taking that. I'll ask you to be back at 2 o'clock. And I think you'll have some additional testimony.

Thank you, all.
(Jury left the courtroom at 12:57 p.m.)
(Luncheon recess taken.)
(2:07 p.m.)

THE COURT: All right. You can be seated, please.
Before we bring the jury in, I just wanted to bring up a question of scheduling.

There's a forecast of sort of snow/sleet/ice, stuff like that tomorrow morning from approximately 3:00 until 10:00, and Ms. Moyé has just advised me that some of the jurors have expressed some concern about that. They are coming from distances.

You know, we can simply wait and see what happens in the morning. Again, on the other hand, that doesn't really help the ones that are coming from 50 miles or so.

Or -- and I haven't asked how long you all think you're going to need for your closings. Another possibility that occurred to me -- I mean, unless the courthouse just turns out to be closed or something like that -- but would be to let them come in at noon. I would give them instructions and then lunch and then closing arguments. And then they'd start to deliberate, presumably, on Thursday morning rather than after that.

But why don't we start with: How long do you think you all are going to be on your closings?

MR. HINES: I think about an hour and a half, Your Honor, in light of the jury instructions.

THE COURT: Okay. For combined total?
MR. HINES: No. For an opening close, an hour and a half and then Mr. Wise's rebuttal.
THE COURT: Half an hour for rebuttal?
MR. HINES: I'd think so, Your Honor, yes.
THE COURT: Total of two hours?
MR. HINES: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Purpura, do you have any idea?
MR. PURPURA: Usually I'm pretty exact on these. This time I have an idea that it should be right around 45 minutes.

THE COURT: Okay. All right.
Ms. Wicks?
MS. WICKS: I think I'll be less than an hour, but it may be around an hour.

THE COURT: Around an hour?
MS. WICKS: Yeah.
THE COURT: Okay.
MS. WICKS: It depends.
THE COURT: Okay. Which would suggest that starting at 11:00 rather than -- we may wind up with an early lunch or, depending on that, just get the Government's opening in and then the rest of them in the afternoon.

Okay. Thank you. Are we ready for the witness?
MR. PURPURA: We are, Your Honor. Can I have my witness take the witness stand?

THE COURT: Sure.
And have we worked out Ms. Wicks' witnesses and/or stipulations?
MR. NIETO: I'm sorry, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Have we worked out your witnesses and/or stipulations?

MS. WICKS: We've worked out one stipulation.
THE COURT: Okay. Don't get the jury yet.
MR. NIETO: That's a fair enough question, Your Honor.
We were working on stipulations. I believe on behalf of Mr. Taylor, we'll be calling one witness, who is a Task Force Officer, briefly to address some of the issues we had raised at the bench.

THE COURT: Are we going to be able to finish -- get the stipulation in, then, and the additional witness you're expecting?

MR. NIETO: Oh, yes, Your Honor, in short order.
THE COURT: Okay. That's fine. Thanks. I just didn't want to leave anything hanging until tomorrow if we didn't have to. Okay.
(Jury entered the courtroom at 2:12 p.m.)
THE COURT: You can all be seated, except for the witness.

MR. PURPURA: Thank you, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Go ahead.
MR. PURPURA: On behalf of Mr. Hersl, we'd call
Mr. Iacovo.

THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.
PETER IACOVO, DEFENDANT HERSL'S WITNESS, SWORN.
THE CLERK: Please be seated.
Please speak directly into the microphone. State your full name for the record and spell your last name, please.

THE WITNESS: My full name is Peter Maxwell Iacovo.
Last name is spelled I-A-C-O-V-O.
THE CLERK: Thank you.
DIRECT EXAMINATION
BY MR. PURPURA:
Q. Mr. Iacovo, I'm going to ask you, what's your occupation at present?
A. Presently, I'm actually preparing to deploy as a security contractor in high-threat environments for the federal government.
Q. And as a security contractor, what are you going to be doing?
A. I'll be providing protective security at embassies and consulates overseas.
Q. Thank you.

And back in 2014, what was your position at that time?
A. At that time I was a detective with -- I believe we were the Special Enforcement Section then.
Q. And when did you first join -- and I assume that's Baltimore City --
A. The Baltimore Police Department. I'm sorry.
Q. That's okay.

When did you first join the Baltimore Police Department?
A. March 27th of 2011 -- I'm sorry.

April 27th, 2011.
Q. That's all right. And how long were you a BPD officer?
A. Up until $I$ took this new position, which was in November of last year.
Q. So November of 2017?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Very good.

Sir, I'm going to direct your attention back to November 5th, 2014, and that was the investigation of Jimmie Griffin.

Do you remember that?
A. I recall.
Q. Showing you what I believe is Defense 35, do you recognize this person?
A. Yes. That's the -- that's Mr. Jimmie Griffin.
Q. Okay. Very good.

And back on November 5th of 2014, what was your position at that time?
A. At that time, $I$ was a detective.
Q. And were you working with anyone in particular on that day, November 5th, 2014?
A. On that day I was conducting surveillance with Detective Hersl.
Q. Okay. And conducting surveillance, if I show you Government Exhibit JG-3, do you recognize this photograph?
A. That was the -- I'm used to seeing it from the other side. But that was the house we were surveilling.
Q. Okay. And that's the house, 3028 Pinewood Avenue; does that sound about right?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Okay. And where were you conducting surveillance from, ballpark?
A. Almost parked right across the street. We were in a vehicle. I was driving.
Q. Okay.
A. We had the car parked right there.
Q. Very good.

And what, if anything, did you see around 12:00 noon?
A. Around noon we were sitting there. A SUV pulled up almost right in front of where we were, parked. A large individual exited the car, went into the house.

It was a pretty short period of time; he came back out. As he was coming out, he was holding money in his hands. He had these like really tight pants. I guess maybe they couldn't fit him. But he was holding money, jumped in the car, and drove off.
Q. Let me slow you down for a second.

For whatever reason, you remembered the really tight pants; is that fair to say?
A. Yes.
Q. And can you just give the jury a better description of this individual that came out or a full description?
A. Imagine maybe my size, slightly heavier, wearing like the just real tight jeans.
Q. Thank you.

And you indicated that you saw something else. How long was he in the residence?
A. Short -- I mean, we're talking, what, four years ago? But if I remember correctly, it was pretty short, maybe the span of a few minutes.
Q. Okay. And he came out, and what could you see?
A. As he came out, he was actually -- I believe he was holding money when he came out, if I remember correctly. He was coming out. He was holding money and jumped right back in the car, and then he took off.
Q. And can you describe, how did he take off?
A. He -- we were facing -- I'm trying to get my directions. We were facing westbound, and then he went -- he pulled up and was facing eastbound like at us. And he came around and we had to turn around. I got on the radio and we were like, Hey, guys, this car's going. We got to get him stopped.

He had like, I want to say, a tag light out. I think actually almost all the brake lights were out, if I'm correct in remembering this. I mean, I haven't seen it -- but I think except for one.

We're like, Hey, you guys got to stop this car, and we were just trying to keep up with him. He didn't know we were there, but he was just -- that's just how I think he naturally drove. And I just remember saying like, Hey, guys, this car is coming out.
Q. When you're saying, "Hey, guys, this guy's coming" [sic], who are you talking to?
A. It would have been to the officers in the other vehicle, which was Sergeant Burns, Detective Romeo, Detective Fassl, and I don't even remember if someone else was there.
Q. Was this vehicle eventually stopped?
A. Yeah. They were able to locate it and stop it at -- I think there was a 7-Eleven on Harford Road. And I stopped a few blocks short because we were in that surveillance vehicle and parked it on Harford Road, maybe like three blocks down, four blocks down, give or take.
Q. And why would you park your vehicle a couple blocks away?
A. So he wouldn't see. You don't want to burn the cars.
Q. By "burn the car," this is a surveillance vehicle, and you didn't want anyone else to see it?
A. Yeah, surveillance car. Everyone uses a surveillance car, not just our unit.

Q. And then when you got to the 7-Eleven, what happened at that point?
A. By the time I got up there, they had already had him exit the vehicle. And K9, I believe it was Officer Fox who came up there with her K9. They did a K9 scan of the vehicle. I believe the dog rendered a positive alert.
Q. Let me slow you down.

Are you familiar with K9s?
A. I am. I was actually a K9 handler myself, but not at this time.
Q. Okay. And -- okay. I interrupted you. I apologize. So there was a positive alert; is that correct?
A. Yeah, there was a positive alert. I couldn't tell you where the alert was on the vehicle. I don't -- at this point when he was out of the car, I was -- he was sitting down on the curb. And I was standing there with him, just -- just standing in his direction. And that's when the $K 9$ was up and they alerted.
Q. And the individual's name was George Lee; is that correct?
A. Yes, it was George Lee.
Q. And was anything recovered from the vehicle?
A. There was -- and I don't know who recovered it, but I recall it was like a large sum of money. It was like in the center console. Like, it was a substantial amount.
Q. Thank you.

And then after that, was a warrant prepared for the target's address of 3028 Pinewood Avenue?
A. Yeah. At that point Detective Hersl went and authored a search warrant for the location.
Q. And after you had a search warrant, what did you do?
A. Well, once we had a search warrant, we assembled, I guess, a team of maybe, what, 15 officers? I'm spitballing there. And we went to the location, made entry on the location, and -Q. By "the location," you mean the -- this house here; is that correct?
A. Yes, that house right there.
Q. Thank you.
A. I think actually we did dual entries because there was a side door on the right side which was where his apartment was. And we had -- and because the house was big, we had a bunch of officers. We did two entries. One down -- one on the lower level and one going up that front door.
Q. Very good.

And at that point what did you do after that?
A. At that point, as we were coming down, another officer that was part of the raid team -- I think it was Officer Frasier -- said that he had seen a guy walking up the street as we were coming down that looked like Jimmie Griffin. And then a child in the house said that her uncle had -- was supposed to be home. She was asking where her uncle was.
So at that point I took that officer and I think it was Officer Chambers, and we actually left for a period of time to canvass the area to see if we could find him at like the Valentino's that was up the street. We drove all around the area.
Q. All right. Did you return back to this house?
A. Yeah. Eventually I returned back. And at that point I went into the basement.
Q. And while you're in the basement, who's in the basement, ballpark? How many officers?
A. A good amount. Maybe like eight to ten. And I'm totally, like, spitballing there.
Q. All right. At least more than three or four officers were in the basement during the search; is that correct?
A. Yeah. The basement was his -- basically kind of like his apartment, Jimmie Griffin's apartment.
Q. In addition to the heroin and the scales, there's also a red bandana.

Do you recall that being seized?
A. There was a red bandana, and I believe it was with the gun that was in the basement.
Q. Okay. And what -- what's the red bandana indicative of, if anything?
A. If it's indicative of anything, it'd be gang affiliation.
Q. And which gang?
A. Bloods.
Q. Thank you.

Then did you go to a secondary location?
A. Yeah. Upon completion, we went to a second location that was associated with Mr. Griffin, and when we got there, two officers went to the rear. It was officer Romeo and Officer Fillion.

And then myself, along with Sergeant Burns, Detective Hersl, Detective Fassl, and I think the other guys came with us from the other squad as well, but I'm not a hundred percent certain.

We went and spoke to a lady up front and explained to her what was going on. And while we were there, Detective Romeo got on the air and said, "Hey, there's a bunch of people in the backyard here."

So she led us through the house and let us out back. And when we got out back, there's a group of people. It was like a parking pad, I believe. And there was a car there, a car in the alley. And there was a group of people there, maybe four or five people, and Jimmie Griffin was one of 'em.
Q. Very good.

And were you there when Jimmie Griffin was arrested?
A. I was.
Q. What -- just tell the jury what you saw in the Jimmie Griffin arrest.

A. While he was getting arrested, I was standing there. And I was also with -- there was other people there; and just for officer safety purposes, kind of keeping attention to everything.

And the one thing -- the one thing that I -- stood out to me about -- and I just recall, for whatever reason that may be, was Detective Hersl seized a chain. Might have been one or two chains, gold chains off him.

And I actually -- he handed them to me. And I was the one that ended up submitting them. And for some reason that just stands out. I think it's just because, honestly, I could count on maybe one hand how many times I've ever submitted jewelry or we've seized jewelry.
Q. I'm going to show you what has been marked as Defense Exhibit No. 39.
(Counsel conferred.)

BY MR. PURPURA:

Q. Again, what am I showing you?
A. That's a copy of the 56 submission form.
Q. Okay. And who is the responsible and submitting officer?
A. I am.
Q. And that's right here (indicating); is that correct?
A. Yep.
Q. And in particular, it looks like there's one gold chain with angel pendant and a rope gold chain with Jesus pendant; is that correct?
A. Yep, that was it.
Q. And the person was Jimmie Griffin (indicating); correct?
A. Yeah. It was seized off Jimmie Griffin. He was wearing it around his neck.
Q. And this is what Detective Hersl gave you at that time, to the best of your knowledge?
A. Yeah.
Q. Thank you.

After Jimmie Griffin was searched, the jewelry taken from him, what happened to Jimmie Griffin?
A. He was either -- I don't even know who transported him. Either we did or a wagon transported him to Central Booking.
Q. Was he transported immediately?
A. Yeah. He went right out.
Q. Very good.

And, finally, during the time that Jimmie Griffin was searched, did anyone pull his pants down?
A. Not that I recall.
Q. Okay. Do a rectum or --
A. No.
Q. -- check, anything like that?
A. No.
Q. Now, I'm going to take you briefly to November 28th, 2015.

At that time period what type of work were you doing?
A. At that time I was the K 9 handler assigned to Ceasefire, and I basically served as the K 9 handler for the entire operational investigation division.
Q. I'm sure that we all know what a K 9 handler is; but just very briefly, what did you do and what was your quick training on that?
A. Basically, it was a -- I had a drug dog. He was trained in the odors of cocaine, heroin, and marijuana by the Baltimore Police Department.

It was about -- I want to say it was about -- when I got the training, it was during the riots. And so my training was about four to six months, because there's time split from when I had to deal with that.

Got the training. And then he maintained a monthly -monthly training that $I$ had to go twice a month and then a yearly certification to keep his certification up.
Q. Very good.

And at that time in November of 2015 , what was your dog's name?
A. Luke.
Q. Okay. Do you recall getting a call back on November 28th, 2015, in reference to Antonio Santiful in the 2200 block of Aisquith Street?
A. I do.
Q. And I know we spoke about this briefly; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And do you have a very clear recollection of this entire incident?
A. No.
Q. Okay. Well, just tell the jury, what do you recall, if anything, when you got that call on November 28th, 2015?
A. At that time I was home. Part of me being the K9 handler for this unit was that $I$ was basically on call unless I was out of state. And I got a call saying they needed a dog up there for a K9 scan.

And I came up there and I had to scan a car that was -- it wasn't even in the same block, I don't think, as the arrestees. I think it was the next block over.

And I did a scan; dog alerted. I don't have my K 9 report. Usually after all my K 9 scans, I write up a report. And I either have it saved on a flash drive or on the BPD database, but $I$ don't have access to it. So I don't recall exactly where the dog alerted, but that was pretty much the extent of my involvement.

I think, actually, I was leaving for National Guard training that -- it was like a Friday. Was this a Friday? I think it was like a Friday. I was leaving for like National Guard training, so I pretty much scanned -- did my k9 scan, rendered alert, and then I left.
Q. Very good.

And you indicated that obviously you're not Baltimore City Police. Do you have access to your K 9 reports now?
A. No.

MR. PURPURA: Thank you. I have no further questions.
THE COURT: All right. Ms. Wicks or Mr. Nieto, do you have any questions for this witness?
MR. NIETO: No, Your Honor.
THE COURT: All right. Mr. Wise?
MR. WISE: Can I have a moment, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Sure.
MR. WISE: Just briefly.
May I have the microphone?
CROSS-EXAMINATION
BY MR. WISE:
Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Iacovo.
A. How you doing, sir?
Q. So I just want to make sure I understood the testimony.

You actually didn't testify at all about the money that was taken off of Jimmie Griffin; right?
A. No.
Q. You weren't asked any questions about that; right?
A. No, sir.
Q. Do you know how much money was taken off of Jimmie Griffin?

A. No.
Q. Did you see anything -- did you see Defendant Hersl search him?
A. I was standing there while Detective Hersl was searching him. I was kind of -- I was standing right there, but I was between paying attention to that and more so paying attention to the people that were there. It was just not something that you focus on. My focus was more so on the individuals around. Q. Okay. So bottom line, you don't know how much -- well, you don't even know that money was, I guess, taken from Jimmie Griffin that day?
A. No.
Q. All right. And then on the twenty -- that was on the 5th, November the 5th.

On the 28th, you said you were asked to do a K 9 scan of a car?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know whose car it was?
A. Like, the defendant -- or I don't know per se. Like, I -yeah.
Q. All right.
A. I imagine it's the defendant in that case, but $I$ don't know exactly whose car it was. I couldn't even -- I don't even recall what the car was, truthfully.

MR. WISE: Okay. Good luck on your deployment.
THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.
MR. WISE: Nothing further, Your Honor.
THE COURT: All right. Any redirect?
MR. PURPURA: Nothing. Thank you, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir.
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
THE COURT: You can step down.
(Witness excused.)
THE COURT: Mr. Purpura?
MR. PURPURA: Your Honor, thank you. On behalf of
Mr. Hersl, we have no further witnesses, and defense rests at this time.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
Let me turn to Mr. Nieto.
MR. NIETO: Yes, Your Honor. I think we have one witness.

THE COURT: All right.
MR. NIETO: Task Force Officer Matthew Smith.
THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.
TASK FORCE OFFICER MATTHEW SMITH, DEFENDANT TAYLOR'S WITNESS, SWORN.
THE CLERK: Please be seated.
Please speak directly into the microphone. State your full name for the record and spell your last name, please.

THE WITNESS: My name is Matthew Smith; last name, Smith, S-M-I-T-H.

THE CLERK: Thank you.
MR. NIETO: May I, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Please do.
MR. NIETO: Thank you.
DIRECT EXAMINATION
BY MR. NIETO:
Q. Sir, I just want to draw your attention back to this case. You were part of the investigative unit in this matter; right?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And so you were present during what are called proffer sessions with cooperating witnesses?
A. Some of them, yes.
Q. Okay. And most specifically, if I draw your attention to the latter stages of March, on March 24 th, were you present during a proffer session or a meeting between the United States Government and Mr . Gondo?
A. Yes. Yes, I was.
Q. Okay. And during the course of that interview, did you take notes?
A. Yes, I did.
Q. Okay. And did you author a report that described what was said during that meeting?
A. Yes. Actually, let me be clear about that. The -- the initial interview, Special Agent Jensen covered the first part. I covered the last part. So my notes only reflect the last part of the 302 .
Q. Okay. And so the actual report itself, have you reviewed it?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And did you write it?
A. Most of it.
Q. Most of it. Not the portions with Special Agent Jensen?
A. Exactly.
Q. Okay. So --

MR. NIETO: And I guess, Your Honor, if I may --
BY MR. NIETO:
Q. Actually, let me start this off, then. So the report that you -- that has been authored for that particular event is approximately 16 pages long; is that right?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Right. And it seems to be that roughly on Page 6, that seems to reflect when Special Agent Jensen left?
A. Yes.
Q. And Task Force Officer Sieracki entered?
A. Yes.
Q. And so that would be roughly the time in which your note-taking was the basis for this report?
A. That's correct.
Q. Okay. Now, later on -- I think it would be roughly around Page 12 of the 16 -- the topic of discussion began, what I'm going to call the D.C. event; right? And that's the allegation of Jenkins and other police going -- following someone into D.C., only to be sort of interacting with another federal agent.

Do you remember that?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And that at that time, Mr. Gondo had relayed to you and to the federal government that it was Jenkins, Taylor, and Hendrix that had followed a guy from Reisterstown to D.C.; is that correct?
A. What's in the report? If that's what's in the 302 , yes.

MR. NIETO: Okay. Thank you.
Nothing further, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Purpura, any questions?
MR. PURPURA: No. Thank you.
THE COURT: Government?
MR. WISE: No. Thank you, Your Honor.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir. You can step down.
(Witness excused.)
THE COURT: Mr. Nieto.
MR. NIETO: So, Your Honor, on behalf of Mr. Taylor, we would rest.

MS. WICKS: Well, we have a stipulation.
MR. NIETO: Minus the stipulation.
THE COURT: Okay. Do we have a stipulation that's been agreed to, or do you need to come up to the bench?

MS. WICKS: We have a stipulation that's been agreed to.

THE COURT: Okay. Then I'm happy to hear from you, Ms. Wicks, as to that stipulation.

And, ladies and gentlemen, if $I$ haven't explained this before, a stipulation is simply a statement of facts that the parties are all agreeing to; it's correct; and that you may consider it as evidence.

MS. WICKS: And, Your Honor, I would just show, again, Defense 9 to the jury.

THE COURT: All right.
MS. WICKS: Defense 9 has a file, IMG_3566, that is highlighted.

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. WICKS: And the Government and Marcus Roosevelt Taylor both stipulate and agree that that file that was created on August 8th, 2016, at 9:29 p.m. is --

THE COURT: I'm sorry. When?
MS. WICKS: August 8th, 2016, at 10:29 p.m. --
THE COURT: Thank you.
MS. WICKS: -- is the file from which the image as depicted in Government Exhibit DA-9 was printed.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
MS. WICKS: Subject to discussion of our other exhibits, we rest.

THE COURT: All right. And if I could see counsel at the bench.
(Bench conference on the record:
THE COURT: So defense is finished. Any rebuttal?
MR. WISE: No.
THE COURT: Okay.
MS. WICKS: I thought they might call Stepp again, but . . .

THE COURT: Okay. Then I'm just going to tell the jury that the evidence is done and that I expect tomorrow we'll have instructions and closing argument.

I'm going to tell them perhaps that they can delay getting here until 11:00 in the morning tomorrow, just so they won't be too worried about that.

Obviously, if the courthouse is closed or something, it's closed.

Yes, I will tell them, which I also will tell them that I don't -- they might want to stay a little bit later than usual, that they could be prepared to stay a little bit later, but I'm not going to keep anybody past 6 o'clock.

MR. PURPURA: Judge, just for the record, we renew our motion to Rule 29 judgment of acquittal as to counts involving Mr. Hersl.

THE COURT: Yes. Thank you.
MS. WICKS: I'd join on behalf of Mr. Taylor.
THE COURT: Okay. All right. And they will be denied, but they have been renewed. Thank you.

Okay. Anything else?
MR. NIETO: Quick question, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Sure.
MR. NIETO: If, for example, the courthouse is closed tomorrow, would the jury return on Monday?

THE COURT: No. Thursday.
MR. NIETO: Thursday. Okay. You're right. Tomorrow's Wednesday. My apologies. Never mind.

THE COURT: Glad I didn't lose a day somewhere.
MR. NIETO: Thank you.)
(Bench conference concluded.)
THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen, it appears that the evidence in the case is concluded. There are some matters that I need to discuss with counsel this afternoon, including jury instructions, so we're going to be excusing you.

What I expect tomorrow is that you will hear instructions from me on the law. I'll be reading them to you, but you'll also have them in writing when you go out to deliberate.
And you will then hear closing arguments from counsel and some brief, final instructions from me. And then -- I don't know exactly how long that will take.

If you can prepare for the possibility of staying a little bit past 5 o'clock tomorrow, that might be helpful. I don't keep people real late, but somewhere between 5:00, 5:30 if it's possible, without unduly inconveniencing anybody. It would just be good if you could have a little bit more flexibility at the end of the day tomorrow.

The case is not over. You have not heard the instructions. You have not heard closing arguments. You have not had a chance to go back and think about the exhibits. So my instructions to you continue: Please keep an open mind. Don't talk about the case. No research. No looking anything up. No reading of any news accounts.

The other thing I did want to address in terms of timing, we have heard a weather forecast for tomorrow morning that indicates a possibility of snow/sleet/freezing rain, that sort of thing. And I know that some of you travel some distance.

I hope we will be able to go forward tomorrow. But just in light of that and in light of the distances that some of you have to travel, we're going to start at 11:00 tomorrow morning.

chambers at about 4 o'clock; would that work --
MR. WISE: It's fine for the United States,
Your Honor.
THE COURT: -- to go through the instructions --
MR. PURPURA: Very good. Thank you.
THE COURT: -- and the verdict sheet. Okay.
All right. I'll see you in chambers at 4:00. (Court adjourned at 2:41 p.m.)
